United Nations Environment Programme Environmental Data Report:

The United Nations Environment Programme Programa de las Naciones Unidas para el Medio Ambiente, Environmental Data Report 2nd Edition. United Nations Environment Programme. Environmental Data Report GEMS Monitoring and Assessment Research Centre,1989 National Air Quality and Emissions Trends Report ,1994

Environmental Indicators-South East Asia , Asia's Clean Revolution David Angel,Michal Rock,2017-09-20 The world's environmental future will be determined in significant part by what happens in the rapidly industrialising and urban economies of Asia The sheer scale of urban population and industrial growth in Asia from Indonesia to China and the energy and materials intensive character of the development process constitutes a dark shadow over the region's and indeed the world's environment And yet this challenge is also an opportunity Precisely because so much of the urban industrial investment within developing Asia has yet to take place the opportunity exists to shape a different development future one that is far less energy materials and waste intensive Asia's Clean Revolution examines the prospects for and pathways to such a new trajectory The book lays out a path breaking vision of how developing economies might go beyond environmental regulation and put in place an array of policies and institutions that could integrate environmental industrial and technological goals These findings provide important input for negotiators considering climate change on a global scale The book approaches the challenge of growth and environment in Asia in a novel way by identifying six major transformational dynamics under way in the world today and assessing whether these can be harnessed to the goal of improved environmental performance of industry With a set of specially commissioned chapters from the leading authorities in North America and Asia this ground breaking book is the first to present concrete policy solutions to the looming crisis driven by large scale urban industrial growth in developing Asia Basic Environmental Health Annalee Yassi,2001 Drawing from the social sciences the natural sciences and the health sciences this text introduces students to the principles and methods applied in environmental health Topics range from toxicology to injury analysis The Environment Programme, Report of the Executive Director United Nations Environment Programme,1980 Global Environment Outlook - GEO-6: Healthy Planet, Healthy People UN Environment,2019-06-06 Published to coincide with the Fourth United Nations Environmental Assembly UN Environment's sixth Global Environment Outlook calls on decision makers to take bold and urgent action to address pressing environmental issues in order to protect the planet and human health By bringing together hundreds of scientists peer reviewers and collaborating institutions and partners the GEO reports build on sound scientific knowledge to provide governments local authorities businesses and individual citizens with the information needed to guide societies to a truly sustainable world by 2050 GEO 6 outlines the current state of the environment illustrates possible future environmental trends and analyses the effectiveness of policies This flagship report shows how governments can put us on the path to a truly sustainable future emphasising that urgent and inclusive action is needed to achieve a healthy planet with healthy
