Way Of Individuation:

The Way of Individuation Jolande Jacobi, 1967 The way of individuation Jolande Jacobi, 1983-04-01 Structure, Interaction and Social Theory (RLE Social Theory) Derek Layder, 2014-08-21 A central problem in contemporary social theory is that of providing an account of social interaction that does justice both to the self monitoring capacities of the individuals involved and to the society that frames the interaction This book attempts to resolve this problem arguing for an objectivist or structuralist account which does not undervalue the importance of the indexical and negotiated aspects of interaction and which takes seriously the Marxist rationalist critique of empiricism and humanism and the associated idea that society should be treated as a supra individual preconstituted and constraining object of scientific analysis First Dr Layder pinpoints certain of the strengths and weaknesses of various schools of thought social psychology scrutinized in both its sociological and psychological forms sociology the Marxist rationalist approach Whilst rejecting the mechanistic or naively deterministic theories which are often associated with an objectivist stance he argues that the productive activities of situated actors must be understood as existing in an articulated relationship with and within sets of preconstituted contextual constraints This thesis is illustrated conceptually by the development of a framework which distinguishes two types and levels of social structure with different modes of production and reproduction and empirically by an analysis of aspects of interaction in the occupation of acting

Elements of Reparation Brent Potter, 2018-05-15 Damage and reparation are central themes of human existence Melanie Klein among other pivotal discoveries noted our capacity for destructiveness towards others and ourselves More importantly she accented the centrality of reparation for mental health Acceptance of the truth inner and outer is essential to this process The author goes on to explain the phenomenon of reparation around the themes of truth aletheia faith pistis and repentance transformation metanoia especially as they appear in the philosophical works of Martin Heidegger and the psychoanalyst Wilfred Bion He then continues following the phenomenon of metanoia tracing it sequentially in the works of Melanie Klein Wilfred Bion Martin Heidegger C G Jung and R D Laing These thinkers have a surprisingly high degree of reflection upon and import into common everyday lived experience Brent Potter s work concludes with a critique of psychiatry cognitive behavioral and manualised approaches to psychological distress He then presents modalities and programs utilizing a metanoia perspective that are rising to replace them

Understanding and Promoting Transformative Learning Patricia

Cranton,2023-07-03 The third edition of Patricia Cranton s Understanding and Promoting Transformative Learning brings a wealth of new insight from the tremendous growth in the field during the decade since the previous edition As in the previous editions the book helps adult educators understand what transformative learning is distinguish it from other forms of learning and foster it in their practice The first part of the book is dedicated to clarifying transformative learning theory and relating it to other theoretical frameworks The author examines transformative learning from the learner s perspective and discusses individual differences in how learners go through the process In the second half of the book the focus is squarely on strategies for promoting transformative learning in a wide variety of adult and higher education contexts Practitioners will be able to take ideas from the text and apply them directly in their teaching Since 1975 transformative learning has become a core theoretical perspective in adult and higher education and research has proliferated In the past decade adult education and especially transformative learning grew into a noticeably larger field The numbers of undergraduate and graduate programs in adult education have increased and continue to increase as more and more individuals are seeking the expertise skills and training necessary to work with adult learners in higher education business industry government health professions non profit organizations and community development In addition the number of programs in higher education both undergraduate and graduate that include courses in transformative learning has grown dramatically These academic audiences use the book to further their understanding of transformative learning theory and practice Drawing on the latest research as well as the author s own teaching experience in both online and face to face courses this new edition will be a vital resource for members of the transformative learning community as well as those encountering the topic for the first time

Technics and Enaction Émilien Dereclenne,2025-02-20

Providing an innovative approach to conceptualising imagination or creativity this book offers an alternative concept of imagination to the classical internalist and representationalist theory milien Dereclenne argues that contemporary conceptions of imagination and creativity in the field of cognitive science are guilty of a kind of dualism between mind and technics Combining enacted embodied ecological extended embedded 5e cognitive theories with material anthropology and the French philosophy of technics and imagination Dereclenne challenges this approach Instead he highlights the role of technical and socio material engagement in imaginative and creative processes In doing so he brings enactive philosophers like Lambros Malafouris Shaun Gallagher and Ezequiel Di Paolo into dialogue with the philosophy of Andr Leroi Gourhan Gilbert Simondon and Bernard Stiegler in order to showcase how French philosophers of technics can help 5E cognitive sciences further explore their theories of imagination

Gracia, 2008-04-30 A first of its kind book that seriously and profoundly examines what it means philosophically to be Latino and where Latinos fit in American society Offers a fresh perspective and clearer understanding of Latin American thought and culture rejecting answers based on stereotypes and fear Takes an interdisciplinary approach to the philosophical social and political elements of Hispanic Latino identity touching upon anthropology history cultural studies and sociology as well as philosophy Written by Jorge J E Gracia one of the most influential thinkers of Hispanic Latino descent

Cross-currents of Jungian Thought Donald R. Dyer, 1991

Race or Ethnicity? Jorge J. E. Gracia, 2018-07-05 What is race What is ethnicity Should we think of them as identities Can they be effectively individuated How are they related How do the relations between them influence pressing issues concerned with social identity gender racism assimilation exploitation justice the law and public policy And how are the answers to these questions affected by the Black and Latino experience in the United States From the Preface This collection of new essays explores the relation between race and ethnicity and its social and political implications Although much work has been done on the philosophy of race in the past century in the United States the concept of ethnicity has only recently awoken the interest of American philosophers and the relations between race and ethnicity remain largely unexamined The discussion is divided into two parts dealing on the one hand with the nature and the relation between race and ethnicity and on the other with the social consequences of the complex relations between them Part I explores in particular the debated topic of racial and ethnic identities Does it make sense to speak of racial and ethnic identities and especially of black and Latino identities And if it does make sense how should these identities be conceptualized and how are they related to gender Part II examines how race and ethnicity have influenced the lot of some social groups in significant ways How do racially defined institutions deal with racial assimilation How do different conceptions of race and ethnicity influence public policy and various forms of racism How can exploited racial and ethnic groups be effectively recognized And what is the role of affect in social justice as dispensed by the courts

Edinburgh Companion to Gilbert Simondon Gregorio Tenti, Anais Nony, Marco Ferrari, Andrea Bardin, 2025-10-31 The Edinburgh Companion to Gilbert Simondon is the most exhaustive introduction to the author's oeuvre and philosophy It covers all the different areas of Simondon's work displaying its internal coherence and innovative potential in a variety of research fields The complexity of Simondon's philosophical enterprise is rigorously interpreted and made available to researchers that are keen to cross disciplinary boundaries and explore new appropriations of his research Structured in four distinct sections the volume hosts a collection of essays penned by scholars who have been working on and through Simondon for several years across different disciplines including philosophy psychology politics law media architecture economy and ecology Topics covered range across individuation technology imagination the transindividual metastability and more The Quest, 2001 Externalism in the Philosophy of Mind Steven D. Edwards, 1994 Sets out to show that externalism is a more plausible theory of intentional content than internalism The book describes a physicalist version of externalism and explains the individuation conditions of demonstrative thoughts and thoughts which concern natural kinds Divine Representations Ann W. Astell, 1994 An interdisciplinary collection of essays that explores the impact of postmodern conditions philosophical social economic psychological and technological on contemporary spirituality Mid-life Directions Anne Brennan, Janice Brewi, 1985 Two experts in adult spiritual growth suggest that praying and playing in the second half of life will be the source of new energy and creativity in the later years Through the Screen Francesco Striano, 2024-12-30 When Alice steps through the mirror in Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland she removes herself from the centre of vision and perspective restoring the autonomy of everything else that lies beyond the mirror Similarly the philosopher who wishes to engage with the contemporary medial system must pass through the screen recognising the autonomy of the non human components of the system but also understanding the human role within the system itself Perched between philosophy and other disciplines such as psychology sociology neuroscience computer science electronics cultural studies French médiologie German Medienarchäologie and first order cybernetics this book challenges our contemporary screen experience and provides the reader with new tools with which to understand it as well as novel insights into the role of philosophy in the digital condition Its aim ultimately is to lay the foundations of a general theory of being and culture by examining them through their technological manifestations
