The Hell Masters:

I Am the Master John Paul Christ, 2001-05 All Masters are grateful for being able to create the life where they can help other souls individuals who are lost find themselves It is through this life lived to the fullest they as souls touched with the wisdom of God have the greatest pleasure Though it is not difficult to reach a level of mastery in your own life know that billions of souls have not reached or remembered this ocean of wisdom Only a select few have walked the path of a True Master teaching nothing but the Truth How does one soul become selected to walk the narrow path of a Master It is a calling a few answer For God calls all souls all his children and all living things to become a Master It is up to you to answer the calling For God is calling you to be a bringer of the light to show those that cannot see the path of enlightenment Do you choose to be one of the great Masters that have walked the lands of history Or do you desire to be in the dark and continue on with the struggle The Method of the Master George Clarke Peck, 1912 The Hoosier School-master Edward Eggleston, 1892 The Master Israel Zangwill, 1895 The Great Republic by the Master Historians ... Charles Morris, Oliver Herbrand Gordon Leigh, 1902 The Religious Art of Zen Master Hakuin Katsuhiko Yoshizawa, Norman Waddell, 2010-12-01 A charismatic and extraordinary Zen teacher and artist Hakuin 1686 1769 is credited with almost single handedly reforming and revitalizing Japanese Zen from a state of extreme spiritual decline As a teacher he placed special emphasis on koan practice inventing new koans such as the famous What is the sound of one hand clapping He also stressed the need to extend the benefits of Zen to others What made Hakuin even more remarkable was that he was not only a religious teacher but also a prolific artist Using calligraphy and painting to create visual Dharma his teachings were rendered on paper in pictures characters and images uniquely and magnificently expressing the nature of enlightenment as he wished to impart it to his students The Religious Art of Zen Master Hakuin is a stunning volume containing many of Hakuin's finest calligraphies and paintings along with brilliant commentary by Katsuhiko Yoshizawa the leading Japanese expert on Hakuin and his work Yoshizawa masterfully guides the reader from one piece of artwork to the next sharing the story of Hakuin's life revealing the profound religious meaning embedded in each illustration and providing a detailed documentary of the lessons of one of Zen's most respected teachers National Labor Relations Board V. National Organization Masters, Mates and Pilots of America, Inc., AFL-CIO, 1957 The Zen Master Hakuin Hakuin, 1971 An introduction to the teachings of Hakuin and the study of Rinzai Zen Empty Cloud - The Autobiography Of The Chinese Zen Master XuYun, INTRODUCTION Long before the time of his death in 1959 at the venerable age of 120 on Mount Yun ju Jiangxi Province Master Xu yun's name was known and revered in every Chinese Buddhist temple and household having become something of a living legend in his own time His life and example has aroused the same mixture of awe and inspiration in the minds of Chinese Buddhists as does as does a Milarepa for the Tibetan Buddhist tradition remarkable in view of the fact that Xu yun lived well into our own era tangibly displaying those spiritual powers that we must otherwise divine by looking back through the mists of time to the great Chan adepts of the Tang Song and Ming Dynasties. They were great men whose example still inspires many today but in many cases we have scant details as to their lives as individuals outside their recorded dialogues or talks of instruction. The compelling thing about Xu Yun's story which follows is that it paints a vivid portrait of one of China's greatest Buddhist figures complete with all the chiaroscuro of human and spiritual experience. It is not a modern biography in the Western sense it is true but it does lay bare the innermost thoughts and feelings of Master Xu Yun making him seem that much more real to us. No doubt the main thing for a Buddhist is the instructional talks and Xu Yun's are rich in insights but it is only natural that we should wonder about the individual human factors asking what life was like for these fascinating figures. After all holy men are like mountains while their peaks of attainment may thrust into unbounded space they must rest on the broad earth like the rest of us. That part of their experience how they relate to temporal conditions is an intrinsic part of their development even if the ultimate goal be to pass beyond the pale of this world. In Xu Yun's account we are given a fascinating glimpse into the inner life of a great Chinese Buddhist Master. By the time of his passing Xu Yun was justifiably recognized as the most eminent Han Chinese Buddhist in the Middle Kingdom. When he gave his talks of instruction at meditation meetings and transmitted the Precepts in his final decades literally hundreds of disciples converged upon the various temples where he met and received his followers and on some occasions this number swelled to thousands. Such a wave of renewed enthusiasm had not been witnessed in the Chinese monasteries since the Ming Dynasty when Master Han Shan 1546-1623 appeared. This eminent Master had also found the Dharma in decline and set about reconstructing the temples and reviving the teachers as would Master Xu Yun some three hundred years or so later. Only years before these great gatherings around Master Xu Yun many of the temples which he was subsequently to use had been little more than ruined shells decrepit shadows of their former grandeur and vitality but the Master revived these along with the teachings that were their very raison d'être. Not surprisingly Xu Yun soon acquired the nickname Han Shan come again or Han Shan returned for their careers were in many respects similar. Both had shared the ordination name of De Qing and both had restored the Monastery of Hui Neng at Cao Xi among others in their times. However unlike his eminent predecessors in the Tang Song and Ming Dynasties who had frequently enjoyed official patronage and support from Emperor and State Xu Yun's long life of 120 years spanned a most troublesome time both for China and Chinese Buddhism. It was a period continually punctuated by both civil and international conflict with almost perpetual doubt and confusion as to China's future and security one in which general want and straitened circumstances were the order of the day. Xu Yun was born in 1840 around the time of the Opium Wars and by 1843 the Treaty of Nanjing had been signed with the ceding of Hong Kong to Great Britain the thin end of a wedge of foreign intervention in China's affairs that was to have fateful and long lasting repercussions. Xu Yun lived to see the last five reigns of the Manchu Dynasty and its eventual collapse in 1911 the formation of the new Republican era taking place in the following year. With the passing of the old order much was to change in China China's new leaders were not that concerned about the fate of Buddhism and indeed many of them were inclined to regard it as a medieval superstition standing in the way of all social and economic progress The waves of modernism sweeping China at this time were not at all sympathetic towards Buddhism nor any other traditional teachings Needless to say many of the monasteries found themselves falling on hard times and many others had already been in ruins before the fall of the dynasty Government support for the Buddhist temples was scanty when not altogether absent Of course China's new leaders had other things on their minds for besides the frequent famines droughts and epidemics which ravaged China during these years there was also the growing threat of Japanese invasion The Communist Chinese were rising in the countryside soon to find sufficient strength to take on the Nationalist armies By the late 1930s Japanese troops occupied large areas of northern China It goes without saying that this unfortunate social and political climate hardly offered the best of circumstances in which to embark upon large scale renewal of the Chinese Buddhist tradition
