shouldn't be like the rest of them Does your mother or did she fail to respect your boundaries as a child adolescent or adult Does your mother keep referring to you as her baby or her little boy even after you became an adult If you answered yes to any of these questions you may be caught in an unhealthy mother son dynamic that is negatively affecting key areas of your life Several years ago John Lee wrote what came to be the most authoritative book on why men run from relationships The Flying Boy Healing the Wounded Man Here he visits the mother son relationship and gently but assertively shows men how to separate from the mother energy that has a massive pull on their hearts and souls no matter how young or old they may be In a work that is a combination of memoir self help psychology recovery and personal growth he discovers why a relationship of 50/50 responsibility doesn't work and what does work how men can stop sonning mothers lovers and wives why one must learn his or her own rhythm of closeness how to be really present to those we love and to life itself and much much more Using case studies personal stories and assessments the book helps men release any anger and grief toward their mothers and teaches them how to take responsibility for their adult selves most importantly Lee provides an understanding of what healthy adults should and shouldn't expect from each other Lee shows wives and girlfriends how to stop being their man's surrogate mother and shows well meaning mothers how certain behaviors may perpetuate an unhealthy cycle and how to better relate to their sons in healthier ways By helping mothers and sons identify this dynamic and providing them with the tools to dismantle it this book will change lives For anyone who is ready to make a clean clear and guilt free separation from the kind of s mothering and sonning that just hasn't worked John Lee will show them the way
