Crisis Cities Kevin Fox Gotham, Miriam Greenberg, 2014-04-03 Crisis Cities blends critical theoretical insight with a historically grounded comparative study to examine the redevelopment efforts following the 9 11 and Hurricane Katrina disasters Based on years of research in the two cities Gotham and Greenberg contend that New York and New Orleans have emerged as paradigmatic crisis cities representing a free market approach to post disaster redevelopment that is increasingly dominant for crisis stricken cities around the world This mode of urbanization emphasizes the privatization of disaster aid devolution of recovery responsibility to the local state use of tax incentives and federal grants to spur market centered redevelopment and utopian branding campaigns to market the redeveloped city for business and tourism Meanwhile it eliminates low income and public benefit standards that once underlay emergency provisions Focusing on the pre and post history of disaster Gotham and Greenberg show how this approach exacerbates the uneven landscapes of risk and resiliency that helped produce crisis in the first place while potentially reproducing the conditions for future crisis At the same time they highlight the expanding coalitions that formed following 9 11 and Katrina to contest these inequities and envision a more just and sustainable urban future Urban Emergency (Mis)Management and the Crisis of Neoliberalism ,2021-08-24 This volume places the Flint Michigan water contamination disaster in the context of a broader crisis of neoliberal governance in the United States Authors from a range of disciplines including sociology criminal justice anthropology history communications and jurisprudence examine the failures in Flint but with an emphasis upon comparison calling attention to similar trajectories for cities like Detroit and Pontiac in Michigan and Stockton in California While the studies collected here emphasize policy failures class conflict and racial oppression they also attend to the resistance undertaken by Flint residents Michiganders and U S activists as they fought for environmental and social justice Contributors include Terressa A Benz Jon Carroll Graham Cassano Daniel J Clark Katrinell M Davis Michael Doan David Fasenfest A E Garrison Peter J Hammer Ami Harbin Shea Howell Jacob Lederman Raoul S Lievanos Benjamin J Pauli and Julie Sze
