

Present Perfect

Although it's easy to confuse this verb tense with present simple, the main difference is that the action is complete for present perfect. In other words, you are looking at the result right now without any words referring to time.

S + have/has + past participle

I have tried sushi.

S + haven't/hasn't + past participle

I have not tried sushi.

Have/Has + subject + past participle

Have you tried sushi?
