Catalogues of Sale Sotheby & Co. (London, England), 1980-10-17 Modern Love Marcus Collins, 2006-06 Private life has altered beyond all recognition during the past one hundred years Britain in 1900 was emerging from a Victorian era in which prudery patriarchal authority and pettifogging rules of etiquette were widely perceived to have circumscribed relations between men and women The twentieth century witnessed a reaction against this system of separate spheres spearheaded by reformers eager that the sexes become each other s equals and intimates Modern Love traces the trajectory of this new model of personal relationships over the course of the twentieth century from its emergence out of the crucible of the suffrage campaign through its reshaping by the women's liberation movement. It explores its impact on smut merchants, warring couples, and teenagers, as well as its reception by such diverse figures as Bertrand Russell and Germaine Greer. It draws on sources as varied as suffragette propaganda, banned sex manuals, marriage counseling literature, and pin-up magazines. Marcus Collins teaches modern British history at Emory University. A Dark California Katarzyna Nowak-McNeice, Agata Zarzycka, 2018-02-14. Focusing on portrayals of California in popular culture, this collection of new essays traces a central theme of darkness through literature (Toby Barlow, Angela Carter, Joan Didion, Thomas Pynchon) and film (Claire Vaye Watkins, video games, L.A. Noire, music, Death Grips, Lana Del Rey, and the Red Hot Chili Peppers), TV (True Detective and American Horror Story), and film (Starry Eyes, Southland Tales, and A Girl Walks Home Alone at Night). Providing insight into the significance of Californian icons, the contributors explore the interplay between positive stereotypes connected to the myth of the Golden State and ambivalent responses to the myth based on social and political power, the consequences of consumerism, transformations of the landscape, and the dominance of hyperreality. Catalogues of Sales Sotheby Parke Bernet & Co, 1981. Battlestar Galactica Roz Kaveney, Jennifer Stoy, 2010-07-02. The West Wing or Generation Kill in Space: A show about God-fearing, sex-obsessed robots. Or a complex meditation on fate, dreaming, and eternal recurrence. Of all recent television science-fiction series, the reimagined Battlestar Galactica is the most highly praised and consistently inventive and intelligent. Where the original show was a straightforward space opera, the new one is rich, strange, and above all unpredictable. This book covers the new Battlestar Galactica from beginning to end, covering all of the show's principal themes: from the depiction of sexuality in an era of artificial people and downloaded memories to what it means to be a member of a military organization when the stakes are not victory or defeat but survival. Like all the best shows about the future or the past, we are never sure when all this is supposed to be happening. Battlestar Galactica is a series about the present; chapters here cover its depiction of the post-9/11 world and such issues as abortion and workers' rights. This definitive book on the full new Battlestar Galactica also includes an interview with Jane Espenson, co-executive producer of the show's last seasons, and writer-director of the Battlestar Galactica prequel film The Plan, with a complete episode guide. The Best of the Pirelli Calendar, 1964-2000 Laura Laurenzi, 2001. Since its debut in 1964, the Pirelli calendar has featured the finest photography of the world's most beautiful women and has served as a fascinating mirror of the times in which we live. Looking through its pages year after year is like traveling through time through varied representations of femininity through changing fashions and concepts of beauty.
