Gun Fights, Ghosts and Goannas Gary Wood, 2024-10-01 Ever since he was a young man living on the Gold Coast, Gary had dreamed of riding a motor cycle around Australia. His focus on family, qualifications, career, and mortgage conspired to push this dream out of his mind. Life had stopped being fun, and he could see that it wouldn't get better unless he changed his thinking. Then one night while lying in his hammock sipping red wine and listening to music, a song from his past came over the speaker. It was a message from his younger self reminding him of his dreams. He made a goal, got a motorcycle, and some camping gear, and within two years he was on a solo motorcycle adventure through Queensland. This book is more than a motorcycle travel story; it's an adventure through the heart of Queensland and the soul of Australia. Along the way, Gary learns the secret of life, loses his money by betting on chickens, and solves the murder of the swaggie from the song Waltzing Matilda. His message to the reader is that it's never too late to set and achieve goals. If he can do it, anyone can, and it's easier than you think. Just twist the throttle and look out for kangaroos.

A History of the Modern British Ghost Story S. Hay, 2011-10-27 Ghost stories are always in conversation with novelistic modes with which they are contemporary. This book examines examples from Sir Walter Scott, Charles Dickens, Henry James, and Rudyard Kipling, amongst others, to the end of the twentieth century, looking at how they address empire, class, property, history, and trauma.

Memory and Identity Linda Pillière, Karine Bigand, 2022-10-24 This book examines the ways in which ghosts haunt and shape cultural identities and memory, considering the manner in which the fluctuations of such identities sometimes imply the rethinking or rewriting of the past. Drawing on case studies in historical, political, literary, and linguistic studies, it explores the narratives that produce imagined communities and identities and the places in which cultural identities are constructed through memory, asking how far these identities and memories disinherit or exclude otherness and how far ghosts disturb orderly narratives, inviting multiple readings of the past. Thematically organized to consider the persistence of ghosts within present memory and identity, the creation of new identities through intertwining narratives of the past, and the reclamation of identities in postcolonial contexts.

Memory and Identity Ghosts of the past in the English-speaking world offers a multi-disciplinary examination of the concept of haunting. Memory and Identity will appeal to scholars of sociology, anthropology, cultural studies, and history with interests in memory and identity.
