This Is Argentina:

The Statist, 1923 Argentina's Economic Crisis United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on International Trade and Finance, 2003 Better Neighbors Chad P. Bown, Daniel Lederman, Samuel Pienknagura, Raymond Robertson, 2017-03-15 This book proposes a renewal of Open Regionalism in Latin America and the Caribbean LAC aimed at achieving the region's goals of high growth with stability The LAC region experienced a growth spurt with equity during the first decade of the 21st Century It is well understood that an unsustainable demand boom fueled by terms of trade improvements drove this growth acceleration episode especially in South America Unfortunately terms of trade are no longer fueling growth and the region's policymakers are in search of new sources of growth with stability With the experience of East Asia and the Pacific in mind many policymakers in LAC are looking to international economic ties as a potential source of stable growth The challenge highlighted in this book lies in designing an integration agenda comprising trade and factor market integration that is conducive to region wide efficiency gains which can help LAC enhance its global competitiveness The forces of geography imply that pro growth global integration cannot be achieved without building a strong neighborhood Thus this volume argues that LAC's regional economic integration agenda needs to go well beyond the current spaghetti bowl of preferential trading arrangements

Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations for 2005 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs, 2004 The Credit Monthly, 1929 Brazilian Bulletin, 1956 Revista Del Río de La Plata, 1930 A journal dealing with financial economic and shipping affairs The Foundations of International Investment Law Zachary Douglas, Joost Pauwelyn, Jorge E. Viñuales, 2014-05-01 International investment law is one of the fastest growing areas of international law It has led to the signing of thousands of agreements mostly in the form of investment contracts and bilateral investment treaties Also in the last two decades there has been an exponential growth in the number of disputes being resolved by investment arbitration tribunals Yet the legal principles at the basis of international investment law and arbitration remain in a state of flux Perhaps the best illustration of this phenomenon is the wide disagreement among investment tribunals on some of the core concepts underpinning the regime such as investment property regulatory powers scope of jurisdiction applicable law or the interactions with other areas of international law The purpose of this book is to revisit these conceptual foundations in order to shed light on the practice of international investment law It is an attempt to bridge the growing gap between the theory and the practice of this thriving area of international law The first part of the book focuses on the infrastructure of the investment regime or more specifically on the structural arrangements that have been developed to manage foreign investment transactions and the potential disputes arising from them The second part of the book identifies the common conceptual bases of an array of seemingly unconnected practical problems in order to clarify the main stakes and offer balanced solutions The third part addresses the main sources of regime stress as well as the main legal mechanisms available to manage such challenges to the operation of the regime Overall the book offers a thorough investigation of the conflicting theoretical positions underlying international investment law testing their worth by reference to concrete issues that have arisen in the jurisprudence It demonstrates that many of the most important practical questions arising in practice can be addressed by a carefully dosed resort to theory Thomas Gibson's Special Market Letters Thomas Gibson,1911
