This Is The Heritage:

The Heritage Theatre Marlite Halbertsma, 2011-05-25 The Heritage Theatre is a book about cultural heritage and globalisation Cultural heritage is the stage on which the global community smaller communities and individuals play out their similarities and differences their identities and singularities Cultural heritage forms an implicit cultural code governing the relationship between parts and the whole individuals and communities communities and outsiders as well as the relationship between communities and the world as a whole Cultural heritage by way of its producers its products and its audience presents an image of the world and its inner coherence The subjects in this book range from places as distant from each other as Dar es Salaam Jakarta Amsterdam Le Creusot Trinidad Brazzaville Bremerhaven New York and Prague and deal with themes such as wayang Kylie Minogue airports and heritage modernist architecture in Africa and the impact of DNA research on the concept of roots The volume is based on papers presented at a conference organised by the Erasmus School of History Culture and Communication of Erasmus University Rotterdam The authors have backgrounds in cultural studies art history anthropology museum studies sociology tourist studies and history The Heritage-scape Michael A. Di Giovine, 2008-12-16 Tourism today is recognized as the largest and fastest growing industry in the world capable of producing positive social and economic transformations especially in developing countries Yet for UNESCO it works in conjunction with World Heritage sites for a far more ambitious goal to produce peace in the minds of men by creating a new global identity Anthropologist and former tour operator Michael Di Giovine draws on ethnographic fieldwork close policy analysis of UNESCO's major documents and professional experiences in Southeast Asia and Europe to provide a detailed examination of UNESCO's unusual effort to harness the phenomenon of globalization and the existence of cultural diversity for the purpose of creating peace in the minds of men through its World Heritage program He convincingly argues that UNESCO's designations are not impotent political performances that lead to the commercialization of local monuments for a touristic superstructure but instead the building blocks of a new world system an imaginative re ordering of the world that knows no geopolitical boundaries but exists in the individual minds of men Di Giovine terms this system the heritage scape a real social structure that extends unbridled across the globe spreading its mantra of unity in diversity Written for social scientists heritage and tourism professionals and the educated traveler The Heritage scape is an insightful detailed and expansive look at the politics and processes histories and structures and rituals and symbolisms of the interrelated phenomena of tourism historic preservation and UNESCO's World Heritage Program in Viet Nam Cambodia and across the world The Heritage of Sufism Leonard Lewisohn, 2018-04-30 The first volume in a three volume set this is a study of the rise of Persian Sufi spirituality and literature in Islam during the first six Muslim centuries This collection of 24 essays covers the key achievements of the Muslim intellectual and cultural tradition in history mysticism philosophy and poetry It demonstrates the positive role played by Sufi thinkers during this period The subjects covered include Sufi masters and

Making of Political Legitimacy in Laos Phill Wilcox,2025-10-01 The Lao People s Democratic Republic is nearly fifty years old and one of the few surviving one party socialist states Nearly five decades on from its revolutionary birth the Lao population continues to build futures in and around a political landscape that maintains socialist rhetoric on the one hand and capitalist economics on the other Contemporary Lao politics is marked by the use of cultural heritage as a source of political legitimacy Researched through long term detailed ethnography in the former royal capital of Luang Prabang itself a UNESCO recognized World Heritage Site since 1995 this book takes a fresh look at issues of legitimacy heritage and national identity for different members of the Lao population It argues that the political system has become sufficiently embedded to avoid imminent risk of collapse but suggests that it is facing new challenges primarily in the form of rising Chinese influence
