The Bahamas Cruising Guide with the Turks and Caicos Islands is a completely revised and updated second edition of the 1998-99 runaway best seller, making it the one guide to the Bahamas and the Turks and Caicos that every captain will want to have on hand.

- Featuring the latest British Admiralty charts, a first in any cruising guide.
- Over 175 aerial photographs spanning 2,000 miles.
- 400 waypoints in two formats (seconds and thousands).
- Full shoreside information lists marinas, stores, services, and "Things to Do" in every port of call. Street maps for larger areas highlight places of particular interest.

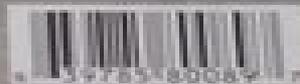

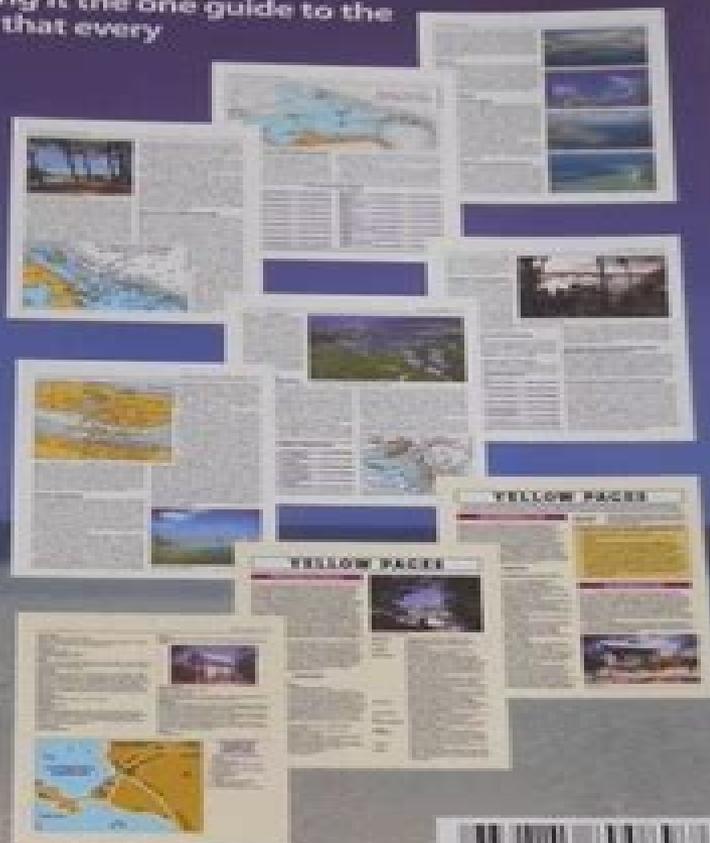

A DOLPHIN-NOMAD BOOK

This guidebook is the product of four years of active research, which has covered the Bahamas and the Turks and Caicos Islands over some 2,000 nautical miles, and a familiarity with the area that long pre-dates this research. The inspiration for a cruising guide in this form came to Matthew Wilson on passage from Barbados to Florida after a trans-Atlantic voyage in 1991, with the determination to set a new standard in this field, and take cruising guides into the twenty-first century.
