Washington, 2021-06-02 Booker T Washington April 18 1856 November 14 1915 was an African American educator leader author and orator and was an adviser to several US presidents He was born into slavery on a plantation in Virginia remembering I cannot recall a single instance during my childhood or early boyhood when our entire family sat down to the table together On the plantation in Virginia and even later meals were gotten to the children very much as dumb animals get theirs a piece of bread here and a scrap of meat there He was nine when his family gained their emancipation and he describes the rejoicing and the apprehension as freed slaves entered a new life His mother took the family to the free state of West Virginia The only name he had known was Booker but at school when first asked his name by the teacher he coolly added Washington to be like the other children who had at least two names This established him on a path of fitting into the white world In the course of his life he established the Tuskegee Institute now Tuskegee University helped found the National Negro Business League now eclipsed by the NAACP and advised several US presidents Between 1890 and 1915 Washington was the dominant leader in the African American community and of the contemporary Black elite He established a powerful political and financial network to advance the cause of African Americans through education and business known as the Tuskegee Machine Up from Slavery chronicles Washington's life from slave to schoolmaster to statesman It was a best seller when published and for many years thereafter In it he writes The temptations to enter political life were so alluring that I came very near yielding to them at one time but I was kept from doing so by the feeling that I would be helping in a more substantial way through a generous education of the hand head and heart

Up from Slavery (1901). By: Booker T. Washington Booker T. Washington, 2017-03-10 Up from Slavery is the 1921 autobiography of Booker T Washington sharing his personal experience of having to work to rise up from the position of a slave child during the Civil War to the difficulties and obstacles he overcame to get an education at the new Hampton Institute to his work establishing vocational schools most notably the Tuskegee Institute in Alabama to help black people and other disadvantaged minorities learn useful marketable skills and work to pull themselves as a race up by the bootstraps He reflects on the generosity of both teachers and philanthropists who helped in educating blacks and Native Americans He describes his efforts to instill manners breeding health and a feeling of dignity to students His educational philosophy stresses combining academic subjects with learning a trade something which is reminiscent of the educational theories of John Ruskin Washington explained that the integration of practical subjects is partly designed to reassure the white community as to the usefulness of educating black people This book was first released as a serialized work in 1900 through The Outlook a Christian newspaper of New York This work was serialized because this meant that during the writing process Washington was able to hear critiques and requests from his audience and could more easily adapt his paper to his diverse audience First Cover of The Outlook newspaper Washington was a controversial figure in his own lifetime and W E B Du Bois among others criticized some of his views The book was however a best seller and remained the most popular African American autobiography until that of Malcolm X In 1998 the Modern Library listed the book at No 3 on its list of the 100 best nonfiction books of the 20th century and in 1999 it was also listed by the conservative Intercollegiate Review as one of the 50 Best Books of the Twentieth Century Up from Slavery chronicles more than forty years of Washington's life from slave to schoolmaster to the face of southern race relations In this text Washington climbs the social ladder through hard manual labor a decent education and relationships with great people Throughout the text he stresses the importance of education for the black population as a reasonable tactic to ease race relations in the South particularly in the context of Reconstruction Booker Taliaferro Washington April 5 1856 November 14 1915 was an American educator author orator and advisor to presidents of the United States Between 1890 and 1915 Washington was the dominant leader in the African American community Washington was from the last generation of black American leaders born into slavery and became the leading voice of the former slaves and their descendants They were newly oppressed in the South by disenfranchisement and the Jim Crow discriminatory laws enacted in the post Reconstruction Southern states in the late 19th and early 20th centuries Washington was a key proponent of African American businesses and one of the founders of the National Negro Business League

Up from SLAVERY (Annotated) Booker Washington, 2021-04-19 This autobiography of Booker T Washington is unabridged and contains an additional annotation at the start of the book This section aims to give the reader an historical context and contains a brief History of Slavery in America and the Abolishment of Slavery This will help set the stage for this autobiography by Booker T Washington I was born a slave on a plantation in Franklin County Virginia I am not quite sure of the exact place or exact date of my birth but at any rate I suspect I must have been born somewhere and at some time As nearly as I have been able to learn I was born near a cross roads post office called Hale s Ford and the year was 1858 or 1859 I do not know the month or the day The earliest impressions I can now recall are of the plantation and the slave quarters the latter being the part of the plantation where the slaves had their cabins My life had its beginning in the midst of the most miserable desolate and discouraging surroundings This was so however not because my owners were especially cruel for they were not as compared with many others I was born in a typical log cabin about fourteen by sixteen feet square In this cabin I lived with my mother and a brother and sister till after the Civil War when we were all declared free This volume is the outgrowth of a series of articles dealing with incidents in my life which were published consecutively in the Outlook I have tried to tell a simple straightforward story with no attempt at embellishment The greater part of my time and strength is required for the executive work connected with the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute and in securing the money necessary for the support of the institution Much of what I have said has been written on board trains or at hotels or railroad stations while I have been waiting for trains or during the moments that I could spare from my work while at Tuskegee Booker T Washington
