Urban Space And Representation Maria Balshaw,Liam Kennedy,2000 An innovative and interdisciplinary collection of new work on the forms and meanings of the modern city in literary film and cultural studies Urban Space And Representation Maria Balshaw,Liam Kennedy,2000 An innovative and interdisciplinary collection of new work on the forms and meanings of the modern city in literary film and cultural studies New York City Built by Words Yuki Watanabe,2011 Film, Mobility and Urban Space Les Roberts,2012-01-01 Reevaluating the significance of location in contemporary film practice and urban cultural theory Film Mobility and Urban Space explores the role of moving images in representations and perceptions of everyday urban landscapes Les Roberts draws on over 1 700 films of Liverpool from 1897 to the present and combines critical spatial analysis archival research and qualitative methods to navigate the city s cinematic geographies as mapped across a broad spectrum of film genres including amateur film travelogues newsreels promotional films documentaries and features Memory, History and the Representation of Urban Space in Post-war American Literature Alice Levick,2018 Experience and Conflict: The Production of Urban Space Panu Lehtovuori,2016-12-05 When designing planning and building urban spaces many contradictory and conflicting actors practices and agendas coexist This book propounds that at present this process is conducted in an artificial reality Concept City characterized by a simplified and outdated conception of space It provides a constructive critique of the concepts underlying the practices of planning and architecture and in order to facilitate more dynamic inclusive and subtle practices it formulates a new theory about space in general and public urban space in particular The central notions in this theory are temporality experiment and conflict which are grounded on empirical observations in Helsinki Manchester and Berlin While the book contextualizes Lefebvre s ideas on urban planning and architecture it is in no way limited to Lefebvorean discourse but allows insights to new theoretical work including that of Finnish and Swedish authors In doing so it suggests and develops exciting new approaches and tools leading to experiential urbanism A Study of the Visual Representation of Architectural and Urban Space-time Sequences Philip Thiel,1958 City, Space and Trade Unionism Beltrán Roca,2025-09-04 How does collective action shape economic landscapes This book examines the transformation of the workers movement in Spain s metal sector one of the country s most unionised industries Having faced restructuring delocalization subcontracting and increasing precarity metalworkers in C diz have used radical methods to challenge measures that threaten their income and industry Adopting a spatial approach to labour and social movements Beltrán Roca investigates the spatial strategies employed by unions to navigate these challenges debating whether to focus on factory bound action or engage the broader community In doing so the book highlights labour militancy as a social process deeply rooted in specific cities and places and of workers as producers of space through conflict Race and Urban Space in Contemporary American Culture Liam Kennedy,2019-07-31 This innovative book looks at representations of ethnic and racial identities in relation to the development of urban culture in postindustrialised American cities The concept of urban space organises the detailed illustration of a series of themes which structure chapters on white paranoia and urban decline memories of urban passage the racialised underclass urban crime and justice and globalisation and citizenship The book focuses on a range of literary and visual forms including novels journalism films narrative and documentary and photography to examine the relationship between race and representation in the production of urban space Texts analysed include writings by Tom Wolfe The Bonfire of the Vanities Toni Morrison Jazz John Edgar Wildeman Philadelphia Fire and Walter Mosley Devil in a Blue Dress Films covered include Falling Down Strange Days Hoop Dreams and Clockers Provocative and absorbing this interdisciplinary treatment of urban representations engages contemporary theoretical and sociological debates about race and the city Issues of space and spatiality in representations of the city are explored and the author shows how expressive forms of literary and visual representation interact with broader productions of urban space

Art, Space and the City Malcolm Miles, 2005-08-16 This book examines public art outside the normal confines of art criticism and places it within broader contexts of public space and gender by exploring both the aesthetic and political aspects of the medium

Urban Space and Cityscapes Christoph Lindner, 2006-04-18 From the verticals of New York Hong Kong and Singapore to the sprawls of London Paris and Jakarta this interdisciplinary volume of new writing examines constructions representations imaginations and theorizations of cityscapes in modern and contemporary culture With specially commissioned essays from the fields of cultural theory architecture film literature visual art and urban geography it offers fresh insight into the increasingly complex relationship between urban space cultural production and everyday life This volume draws on critical urban studies and moves beyond familiar cultural representations of the city by considering urban planning and architecture Organized under three inter related themes image text and form essay topics range from the examination of cyberpunk skylines pagan urbanism and the cinema of urban disaster to the analysis of iconic city landmarks such as the twin towers the London Eye and the Judisches Museum Berlin Covering a diverse range of cities including Berlin Chicago Jakarta Johannesburg Hong Kong London Los Angeles Paris and Venice this fantastic resource for students scholars and researchers alike works expertly at the intersections of visual material and literary culture

Gender in Spanish Urban Spaces Maria C. DiFrancesco, Debra J. Ochoa, 2018-01-03 This edited collection examines the synergistic relationship between gender and urban space in post millennium Spain Despite the social progress Spain has made extending equal rights to all citizens particularly in the wake of the Franco regime and radically liberating Transición the fact remains that not all subjects particularly women immigrants and queers possess equal autonomy The book exposes visible shifts in power dynamics within the nation's largest urban capitals Madrid and Barcelona and takes a hard look at more peripheral bedroom communities as all of these spaces reflect the discontent of a post nationalistic economically unstable Spain As the contributors problematize notions of public and private space and disrupt gender binaries related with these they aspire to engender discussion around civic status the administration of space and the place of all citizens in a global world Louis Sebastien Mercier's Representation of Urban Space, 2009 Representation of British Cities Andreas Fahrmeir, 2003
