A History of Catholic Moral Theology in the Twentieth Century James F. Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before during and soon after the Second World War The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical Fritz Tillmann asks whether it's adequately biblical and Gerard Gilleman whether it's adequately spiritual Bernard Haering integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere classical gate keepers censoring innovation But with Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism in Latin America liberation theology in North America Feminism and Black Catholic theology and in Asia and Africa a deep post colonial interculturatism At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally

Understanding the Art of Biblical Counseling Dr. Sam S. Gasela-Mhlanga, 2020-10-23 It is a Biblical Counseling book that zeros in counseling people with HIV/AIDS in particular and any other general disease that has similar stigma in nature in general The book discusses the counsel for sexual behavioral change counseling children with HIV/AIDS women especially in Africa who face social inequality and are exposed to HIV/AIDS infections more than men The book also discusses a secular Rational Emotive Therapy as a model for interventions contrary to Biblical Counseling posing a question if Christian women can opt to use RET as alternative options Counseling people with suicidal thoughts the orphans and counseling the dying is part of the main thrust of this book As a matter of fact this book answers many questions for all Christians who are confronted by dire decisions to make about their health and lives This is a highly recommended book gives practical guidance in making one's decisions about health and choices in life for better future

The Church in an HIV + World Daniela Gennrich, 2004 This comprehensive handbook aims to challenge Christians to look at HIV/AIDS in a new light and consider fresh ways of responding to this humanitarian and theological crisis God is calling us to do church differently Although it is aimed squarely at Christian Churches its applicability goes well beyond that This is true especially for the appendices which offer practical guidelines that will help anyone to meet the real lived needs of people living with HIV or AIDS It challenges us how can we live out what God requires of us in South Africa today where nearly 5 million people are living with HIV AIDS and more than 600 die every day
