Women in Prison

Barbara H. Zaitzow, Jim Thomas, 2003 It is old news that the conditions and policies of women's prisons are different from those for incarcerated men Less evident however is how gender differences shape those policies and how gender identity and roles shape women's adaptation and resistance to prison culture and control The papers in this collection explore how the gender based attitudes that women bring to prison frame how they respond to the prison environment and how gender stereotypes continue to affect the treatment and opportunities of incarcerated women today It looks particularly at how the personal and social problems imported into the prison setting become part of the intricate web of prison culture and how extensively women's prison experience reflects the control and domination they experienced in the outside world

VAMPIRE HUSBAND and THE AMERICAN JUSTICE

Paru Shiva, 2014-05 This book is about a woman who had come to America from Kashmir India She had no knowledge about American culture or American Justice System She was married in India and her husband brought her to America In America her husband started abusing her Being culturally abroad she kept taking abuse on daily basis and kept lying about her bruises and cuts to those who were asking her questions about her injuries Abuse got worst to the extent that one day her husband tried to kill her She gained her consciousness after couple of hours when her husband decided to dump her body in the park Somehow in the morning she managed to escape with her two children She went to a woman s shelter where she lived for six months In the shelter they insisted that she had to go to the court to get restraining order for her safety In that process her children were taken by the court and were given to that abusive man from whom they had a narrow escape She was forced to pay child support when she had not taken even a one cent from her home or from her husband after she left Her two children were given to their father because she was going to school Judge punished her and her two children for trying to establish their life Her Children suffered the most because of the Justice System I wrote this book for two reasons One reason is to tell my children especially my son that I am very sorry for taking my case to American Justice System because his father has kept him in fear Even my son is adult now but his father is still treating my son like he was treating me and my son is kept in a lot of fear stress and extreme tension His father didn t let him complete his education If he had encouraged my son to complete his education then he wouldn t be able to control my son s life That is tearing my heart every day And second reason is that I want to help a Battered Woman and their children by telling them my story I was a very private person but that didn t help me Every battered woman of this country should know that when a man hit his wife is not

Mother Earth, 1912 When Mothers Work, Who Pays? Martha Sugar, 1994-06-22 This book is a comprehensive look at the results of a study done under the auspices of Kent State University that explored the attitudes beliefs and life orientation of 253 women between the ages of 25 and 45 Depending upon the amount of employment that the subjects mothers had outside the home while the subjects were growing up the adult subjects responded to questions of adjustment to life overall sense of well being emotional stability and sense of self fulfillment The overwhelming response was that women whose mothers had worked while they were growing up were more likely to suffer from depression to feel less effective as parents and to report less satisfaction with their parenting skills careers and life in general Contrary to perceived notions of family adjustment to working mothers day care and women s liberation this study forces us to respond to the warning signals issued by a generation of the daughters of working mothers While Sugar s findings are clear and unambiguous she provides ample information for the reader to explore other interpretations of the data and the cause and possible solutions sinks to the floor muttering Misermisermisermiser in the distant disembodied voice of a ventriloquist And in Talking Mama Losh n there is Sidney Ruthie s older brother getting down to business sprinkling his speech with Yiddish French and German words that project a wisdom and cosmopolitanism he clearly craves Three floors below the Zimmer apartment Ruthie enters the altogether different realm of Dot a thrice married hatcheck girl and her daughter and son Glory and Roy Rogers These are characters who as their names seem to promise bring adventure and excitement from acted out fantasies of Hollywood to gunfights amid the rooftop battlements of Fort Arden from impulsive stylish haircuts to Chinese food with pork And across the stoop Ruthie visits with the Opals family Iris Ivy and Ione three daughters whose endless lessons in charm elocution and posture prime them for future fame and glory In Useful Gifts Carole Glickfeld creates through the optimistic voice of a young girl intimacy with the complexity and heartbreak of a world we hope she can survive In the closing story of the collection Ruth Zimmer twenty years older retraces her neighborhood not only to preserve her memories but to understand finally their effect on her now a grown woman living three thousand miles away
