When Our Parents Need Us:

When Our Parents Need Us Most David L. McKenna, 2000-03-07 Your parents are entering their senior years How can you as a caregiver help them face retirement assist them in financial decision making handle your own emotions while parenting your parent cope with sickness and physical changes encourage them to reflect on their spiritual lives Dr McKenna speaks powerfully from his own experiences with four aging parents two of whom lived in his home He offers comfort and guidelines for times of transition and explores in everyday terms the biblical meaning of caregiving Saying Goodbye David H. Klein, 1997 Tells us how we must transform our conception of ourselves as children in order to play a fully adult role in relation to our aging parents A why to as well as a how to book Jacket DIVORCE: When You Are Caught in the Middle - A Child's Guide PEGGY S. BALTIMORE, LCSW, 2014-08-01 This book is an excellent resource for a parent or counselor to help the child who is experiencing pressure to take sides with a parent during divorce or post divorce When a child is caught in the middle of this conflict they often feel pressured worried sad and mad This book can help children by Exploring the many feelings children experience when they are caught in the middle Teaching them how to protect their personal boundary Showing them how they can stay out of the middle Reassuring them that they can express their feelings when they feel pressured Giving them the skill to ask for what they need Parents can also benefit from better understanding the child's point of view and will learn ways to decrease the pressure between their child's two homes Crossing Back Marianna De Marco Torgovnick, 2021-09-14 From the award winning author of Crossing Ocean Parkway a personal memoir about adjusting to loss through books meditation and the process of memory itself Marianna De Marco Torgovnick experienced the rupture of two of her life's most intimate relations when her mother and brother died in close proximity Mourning rocked her life but it also led to the solace and insight offered by classic books and the practice of meditation Her resulting journey into the past imagines a viable future and raises questions acute for Italian Americans but pertinent to everyone about the nature of memory and the meanings of home at a time like ours marked by cultural disruption and wartime Crossing Back Books Family and Memory without Pain presents a personal perspective on death mourning loss and renewal A sequel to her award winning and much anthologized Crossing Ocean Parkway Crossing Back is about close familial ties and personal loss written after the death of her remaining birth family who had always been there and now were not After their loss she entered a spiritual and psychological state of transcendental homelessness the feeling of being truly at home nowhere of being spiritually adrift In a grand act of symbolic reenactment she found herself moving apartments repeatedly not realizing she did so subconsciously to keep busy to stave off grief By reading and studying great books she opened up to mourning a process she constitutionally resisted as somehow shameful Over time she discovered that a third death colored and prolonged her feelings of grief her first child's death in infancy which in the course of a happier lifetime had never been adequately acknowledged Her new losses led her finally to take stock of her son's death too Reading and meditating followed by writing became daily her healing rituals A warm and intimate user's guide to books family and memory in the mourning process the end point being memory without pain Crossing Back is a wide ranging memoir about growing older and learning to ride the waves of change Lively and conversational Torgovnick is masterful at tracking the moment to moment day to day challenges of sudden or protracted grief and the ways in which the mind and the body seem to search for and sometimes find solutions Participatory Approaches to Attacking Extreme Poverty Xavier Godinot, Quentin Wodon, 2006-01-01 Relying on contributions from the International Movement ATD Fourth World this book deals with questions such as What does it mean to live in poverty and especially in extreme poverty How can very poor people be reached through development projects How can we assess whether projects succeed in changing the lives of the poorest individuals In answering these questions the emphasis is on exploring what type of knowledge is needed to fight extreme poverty A key argument is that apart from academic knowledge a concerted effort is needed to listen to the knowledge of poor people themselves as well as to the knowledge of practitioners who are engaged with them on a daily basis to fight poverty After the introductory chapter the text of a speech by Joseph Wresinski founder of the International Movement ATD Fourth World at a congress of social scientists held at UNESCO is reproduced The next contribution is based on comments by the International Movement ATD Fourth World on the World Bank's World Development Report 2004 Making Services Work for Poor People Thereafter case studies are provided on participatory approaches to attacking extreme poverty in both developing countries Madagascar and Tanzania as well as Bolivia Guatemala and Peru and developed countries the United States and Belgium The Young Woman's Journal, 1928 Sweet November Horatio Gates, 2018-11-04 This has been a journey of self love hope peace and love The main character was named after my late brother Montierre who passed away at a very young age This book is dedicated to my friend who passed away I hope you rest in paradise The Outlook Lyman Abbott, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Ernest Hamlin Abbott, Francis Rufus Bellamy, 1927 Saving Lives Without Destroying Yours Dr. Maryna Mammoliti, Adam Ly, 2024-06-12 Physicians help people heal but how well do they take care of their own physical and mental well being How does a physician's personal history medical training and medical culture predispose and perpetuate potential health issues relationship challenges financial strain abuse or burnout in physicians Does the prevalent mindset of pushing beyond our needs and losing ourselves in the physician identity perpetuate burnout or sustainability How do emotions such as fear obligation guilt and shame affect medical training medical practice physician lives and their relationships Saving Lives without Destroying Yours is a self help book for physicians to set boundaries to improve their mental health and wellbeing break intergenerational medical training traps protect themselves engage more in their life roles and design a life and medical practice where physicians can thrive not just survive This book empowers physicians to know themselves their needs wants abilities and limitations while being understanding and non judgmental towards others needs when setting boundaries Takeaway pearls include building self awareness setting boundaries communicating assertively identifying patterns of abuse building healthy relationships and managing interpersonal conflict using dialectical behavioural therapy principles and emotional intelligence Dr Mammoliti and Mr Ly combine their experience in psychiatry psychotherapy coaching and occupational therapy to encourage a comprehensive self reflection journey and guide physicians in boundary setting Discover how to say No appropriately and say Yes to a more meaningful and healthy life The Young
