Witness From The Pulpit:

Witness from the Pulpit Harold I. Saperstein, Marc Saperstein, 1999-12-15 Harold I Saperstein served as rabbi of Temple Emanu El of Lynbrook N Y from 1933 until his retirement in 1980 The specific contours of his career reflect a sustained effort to use the pulpit of this suburban temple to communicate a Jewish perspective based on personal encounters with great issues of the day including the rise of Nazism and the Holocaust the civil rights era the McCarthy era and other turning points in American history The fifty two sermons in this book have been selected introduced and annotated by Marc Saperstein whose award winning books on the history of Jewish preaching have established him as a leading expert on this subject No other book illustrates as effectively the value of the sermon as a resource for understanding the challenges faced by American Jews at some of the most dramatic moments in the turbulent history of this century Jewish Preaching in Times of War, 1800 - 2001 Marc Saperstein, 2012-08-31 Wartime sermons offer a window on to how Jews perceive themselves in relation to the majority society and how Jewish and national values are reconciled when the fate of a nation is at stake They also reveal a great deal about how rabbis guide their communities through the challenges of their times The sermons reproduced here were delivered by rabbis from across the Jewish spectrum and each is accompanied by a comprehensive introduction and detailed notes Divine life and missionary witness, ed. by dr. the use of Christian art and the history of its use in Lutheranism since the time of the Reformation The author states in the introduction to the book The Lutheran Church was never an enemy of the art neither the fine arts nor industrialized arts The Lutheran Church to confess its faith did not hesitate to enlist the aid of pure and beautiful art forms not only in the harmonies of poetry and music but also in architecture sculpture painting bronze work wood carving and embroidery This book concerns itself chiefly with church architecture but necessarily also discusses the place of the fine arts in the construction and use of spaces consecrated to the worship of the One True God Father Son and Holy Spirit where God's people are gathered to receive His gifts of grace and mercy through His Holy Word and the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar
