Cahier Seven June 1998 Tacita Dean, Michel François, Pierre Bismuth, Rita McBride, Witte de With, centrum voor hedendaagse kunst, 1998 Cahier, 1998 From #1, September 1999, Witte de With Center for Contemporary Art, Rotterdam Witte de With, centrum voor hedendaagse kunst, 1999 Selection and translation of the articles appeared in various journals in various languages From #2, April 2000, Witte de With Center for Contemporary Art, Rotterdam Witte de With, centrum voor hedendaagse kunst, 2000 From 2 features a series of short essays which provide an art historical and theoretical context for the Witte de With's exhibition program and will investigate and represent the European cultural identity as seen through the practice of contemporary art From, 2000 Cahier Barbera van Kooij, 1998 The Art of Mechanical Reproduction Tamara Trodd, 2015-09-25 The Art of Mechanical Reproduction presents a striking new approach to how traditional art mediums painting sculpture and drawing changed in the twentieth century in response to photography film and other technologies Countering the modernist view that the medium provides advanced art with resistance against technological pressures Tamara Trodd argues that we should view art and its practices as imaginatively responding to the potential that artists glimpsed in mechanical reproduction putting art into dialogue with the commercial cultures of its time The Art of Mechanical Reproduction weaves a rich history of the experimental networks in which artists as diverse as Paul Klee Hans Bellmer Ellsworth Kelly Robert Rauschenberg Gerhard Richter Chris Marker and Tacita Dean have worked and it shows for the first time how extensively technological innovations of the moment have affected their work Original and broad ranging The Art of Mechanical Reproduction challenges some of the most respected and entrenched criticism of the past several decades and allows us to think about these artists anew Diaspora and Visual Culture Nicholas Mirzoeff, 2014-04-04 This is the first book to examine the connections between diaspora the movement whether forced or voluntary of a nation or group of people from one homeland to another and its representations in visual culture Two foundational articles by Stuart Hall and the painter R B Kitaj provide points of departure for an exploration of the meanings of diaspora for cultural identity and artistic practice A distinguished group of contributors who include Alan Sinfield Irit Rogoff and Eunice Lipton address the rich complexity of diasporic cultures and art but with a focus on the visual culture of the Jewish and African diasporas Individual articles address the Jewish diaspora and visual culture from the 19th century to the present and work by African American and Afro Brazilian artists Inverted Utopias Héctor Olea Galaviz, Mari Carmen Ramírez, Mari Carmen Ramírez, Héctor Olea, Hector Olea Hernandez, 2004-01-01 In the twentieth century avant garde artists from Mexico Central and South America and the Caribbean created extraordinary and highly innovative paintings sculptures assemblages mixed media works and installations This innovative book presents more than 250 works by some seventy of these artists including Gego Joaquin Torres Garcia Xul Solar and Jose Clemente Orozco and artists groups along with interpretive essays by leading authorities and newly translated manifestoes and other theoretical documents written by the artists Together the images and texts showcase the astonishing artistic achievements of the Latin American avant garde The book focuses on two decisive periods the return from Europe in the 1920s of Latin American avant garde pioneers and the expansion of avant garde activities throughout Latin America after World War II as artists expressed their independence from developments in Europe and the United States As the authors explain during these periods Latin American art was fueled by the belief that artistic creations could present a form of utopia an inversion of the original premise that drove the European avant garde and serve as a model for

Où je suis, vu du ciel Michel François,1999 Tacita Dean Rina Carvajal,2007 This publication published on the occasion of her exhibition at Miami Art Central presents a survey of some of Tacita Dean s most compelling film works dating from the 1990s to the present

Modern Art IJsbrand M. C. Hummelen,Dionne Sille,2005 The conservation of contemporary art should not be a static process carried out behind closed doors but dynamic and open to discourse New media and new materials constantly present issues which traditional conservation methods cannot address and a continual search for new techniques is therefore required This dynamic research may include interviews with artists documentation of artists materials the recording of image word or sound of performances installations temporary and permanent visual art scientific research into the identification composition ageing and preservation of modern materials This volume an Archetype reprint of the volume first published by The Foundation for the Conservation of Modern Art and the Netherlands Institute for Cultural Heritage makes a most important contribution to the on going debate by presenting the conservation challenges relating to ten objects of different media and materials plastics kinetic objects monochromes and works of mixed media of considerable art historical value The ten studies include the works of Jean Tinguley Piero Manzoni Tony Cragg and Mario Merz In addition to case studies this volume includes symposium papers by art historians physicists philosophers artists conservators and critics on topics as varied as accidental damage working with artists packing and transport installation identifying plastics ethics training databases etc Key articles in this volume offer solutions to basic problems that can then be applied in daily practice this extensive and handsome work is a godsend for modern art restorers

Restauro a publication of this nature should be of interest to anyone who cares for modern art including owners and curators as well as the conservation profession

WAAC Newsletter Tacita Dean Tacita Dean,Roland Groenenboom,Museu d'Art Contemporani (Barcelona, Spain),2001 The work of Tacita Dean consists primarily of 16mm films and sound pieces in which process transformation and coincidences play vital roles Static camera positions and long takes are characteristic of her films creating a sense of stillness in their moving images Her methods are highly flexible she allows chance to intervene during the phases of preparation filming sound recording and editing in such a way that she continually finds new directions for her work to take instead of directing it with rigidity Her films merge fact and fiction Both the physical world and our private worlds are depicted with the relationship between them central to the work She often employs the coastline and sea as a motif in her work suggesting a fascination with the elemental idea of the sublime This first monograph on her work accompanies a show at the Museum of Contemporary Art in Barcelona and will be a welcome introduction to a young artist whose work has earned her significant praise

Bruce Conner Rudolf Frieeling, Gary Garrels, 2016-07-04 This book is published by the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art on the occasion of the exhibition Bruce Conner It's All True co curated by Stuart Comer Rudolf Frieeling Gary Garrels and Laura Hoptman with Rachel Federman Colophon

Living Inside the Grid New Museum of Contemporary Art (New York, N.Y.), Dan Cameron, 2003 A grid is an abstract simple mathematical structure ordered by ninety degree angles and regularly spaced columns and rows A grid is also the cities we live and work in the buildings that tower over us the electricity and fiber optic networks that sustain our energy and information needs We do as the title of this thematic catalogue suggests live inside the grid The pervasive grid based visual and information systems that have come to increasingly define contemporary life are explored here by 24 international artists for whom the grid is something very different than the motif it was for 20th century artists Artists include Absalon Jennifer Bolande Jose Damasceno Do Ho Su Luisa Lambri Langlands interlocking cultural linguistic and economic grids and soft grids

Brushwood Robert Zandvliet, Leontine Coelewijn, Andreas Fiedler, 2001 This publication focuses on the recent landscape paintings of the young Dutch architect Robert Zandvliet These large scale paintings rendered with broad brush strokes show the progression of his work toward abstractions that are the mere suggestion of landscape

Cinéma Cinéma Stedelijk Van Abbemuseum, 1999 Cin ma Cin ma explores the fascination of a number of visual artists for the phenomenon of cinema The publication offers a broad range of artistic approaches to the world of film and explains the various ways in which artists use the cinematographic experience to formulate their own ideas The artists are for example interested in the various storytelling opportunities that cinema provides They investigate the field of tension between fiction and reality and study the role that cinema plays in the perception and reconstruction of both historical and current events Attracted by the power of cinema the artists featured here analyze its components and delve into the specific qualities of the cinematic grammar of the way in which a film is constructed a process that includes camera use montage lighting framing casting mise en scene and so forth In so doing they make use of multiple projection screens sound photography slide projections and props Each chapter spotlights one artist offers an extensive array of visual material and furnishes an accompanying explicative text In addition two essays introduce the book Jaap Guldmond curator of the Stedelijk Van Abbemuseum Eindhoven provides a context for and an explanation of the principles that underlie this publication and the exhibition of the same name Jean Christophe Royoux French critic and authority on the relationship between visual art and cinema analyzes the different styles of approach that artists take to the so called cin ma d exposition
