Writing The Social Text Poetics And Politics In Social Science Discourse:

Writing the Social Text Richard Brown, 2017-07-05 During the past decade it has become commonplace to interpret social and cultural reality the very groundwork of the social sciences as linguistic constructions Not only is society viewed as a text but scientific texts themselves are seen as rhetorical constructions This collection of scholarly essays begins with an overview of this emerging field and covers the specific stylistic practices by which social scientists create objective or true representations of society The volume closes with a consideration of the more telling challenges to the rhetorics of the social sciences and how these might be encompassed or overcome Writing the Social Text R. H. Brown, 1992-01-01 Writing the Social Text Richard Harvey Brown, 1992 During the past decade it has become commonplace to interpret social and cultural reality the very groundwork of the social sciences as linguistic constructions Not only is society viewed as a text but scientific texts themselves are seen as rhetorical constructions This collection of scholarly essays begins with an overview of this emerging field and covers the specific stylistic practices by which social scientists create objective or true representations of society The volume closes with a consideration of the more telling challenges to the rhetorics of the social sciences and how these might be encompassed or overcome Management Theory Nanette Monin, 2004-01-22 Narrative approaches to organisation and management studies are very much in vogue Offering a new challenge to management scholarship Management Theory A Critical and Reflexive Reading exposes the subtexts of five influential texts by Taylor Follett Drucker Mintzberg and Kanter In doing so it encourages readers to recognise the stories that Cultural History and Education Thomas S. Popkewitz, Barry M. Franklin, Miguel A. Pereyra, 2001 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Fiction and Social Research Anna Banks, Stephen P. Banks, 1998-09-11 Fiction and Social Research brings together writers from a variety of disciplines to explore and illustrate the possibilities of new narrative forms in social research At the intersections of fiction ethnography and cultural studies these essays demonstrate narratives that simultaneously enrich fieldwork and enliven research reporting By arranging this volume into four areas of concern this volume demonstrates how fiction can express issues of representation subjectivity critique and postmodern discourse This volume is unique in its accessibility and will prove a valuable tool to the veteran scholar and beginning ethnographer alike Epistemic Governance Pertti Alasuutari, Ali Qadir, 2019-09-23 This book argues that modern governance is performed by actors who seek social change epistemically by drawing on widespread public views of reality Agents of change such as parliamentarians or social movement activists will assess and affect what they believe to be people's conceptions of what is possible rational and desirable This often means that these key authority figures will invest in credible knowledge production as well as appeal to individual and group identifications emotions and values Alasuutari and Qadir show how this epistemic governance works in three important arenas of social change parliaments which debate laws that constitute the bulk of reforms international organizations that circulate global norms and social movements and NGOs

Through their analysis the authors detailed innovative methodology for discourse analysis indicates the utility of epistemic governance as a new paradigm for research into global social change This book will be of use to students in upper level degree programs who want to design empirical research into social change as well as researchers in sociology political science and public policy Eating Agendas Donna Maurer,Jeffery Sobal, The international group of sociological and nutritional scientists in this volume represent the research that has been conducted on the social problematics of food and nutrition in such areas as food safety biotechnology food stamp programs obesity anorexia nervosa and vegetarianism The broad range of topics addressed and the case studies examined make this book suitable as a course related text both in foodways and cultural aspects of nutrition and as a new departure in social problems courses Analyzing Social Settings John Lofland,Lyn H. Lofland,1995 Starting where you are Evaluating data sites Getting in Getting along Logging data Thinking topics Asking questions Arousing interest Developing analysis Writing reports International Social Science Journal ,1997 Researching Culture Pertti Alasuutari,1995-09-27 Introducing a range of approaches and methodological tools for undertaking research this textbook argues that cultural studies transcend the traditional divisions between qualitative and quantitative method and between the social sciences and the humanities Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 California Sociologist ,1993 Resistance and Representation Janice Jipson,Richard T.
