Education in Xinjiang, 1884-1928 Benjamin S. Levey,2006 Communication in Peace, Conflict in Communication Tuğrul İltır,2008 Peace and Conflict are commonly understood as polar opposites In a polarised opposition there is no place for conflict in peace and peace the privileged term of the binary opposition needs to be pure and homogeneous cleansed of any unlicensed differences and contradictions Yet a radically plural and democratic politic must harbour conflicting and antagonistic views of things opposition is internal to it and its view of freedom says that freedom is always the freedom of those who think differently In contrast the ideal of a homogeneous self same indivisibly unified society is totalitarian and repressive of the very differences that make a society any society possible The ocgaErtizers of the 2nd International Conference on Communication and Media Studies at Eastern Mediterranean University 2 4 May 2007 thought that a deconstructive and feminist framework that destabilises the entrenched certain ties of polar oppositions and an ethical response to the irreducible otherness of the other as well as to one s own alterity would be very appropriate and relevant in our times for rethinking these issues and relied on that framework in formulat ing the theme of the conference as Communication in Peace Conflict in Communication to emphasise the interrelationship of the two parts separated by the slash as well as the formulation of the subtopics that were listed in the call for papers This volume includes work from around the world that responded to that call Paideuma ,2006 China's International Relations in Asia Li Mingjiang,2010 This new Major Work is fully indexed and includes a comprehensive index newly written by the editor which places the collected material in its historical and intellectual context It is destined to be valued by scholars students and researchers
