United States. Central Intelligence Agency,1970 Lost Imperium Paul Stocker,2020-08-05 This book examines for the first time the role of Britain's Empire in far right thought between 1920 and 1980 Throughout these turbulent decades upheaval in the Empire combined with declining British world power was frequently discussed and reflected upon in far right publications as were radical policies designed to revitalise British imperialism Drawing on the case studies of Ireland India Palestine Kenya and Rhodesia Lost Imperium argues that imperialism provided a frame through which ideas at the core of far right thinking could be advocated nationalism racism conspiracy theory antisemitism and anti communism The far right's opposition to imperial decline ultimately reflected more than just a desire to reverse the fortunes of the British Empire it was also a crucial means of promoting central ideological values By analysing far right imperial thought we are able to understand how they interacted with mainstream ideas of British imperialism during the twentieth century while also promoting their own uniquely racist violent and authoritarian vision of Empire This book will be of interest to students and scholars of British fascism empire imperialism racial and ethnic studies and political history installation where a mysterious Bedouin terror organization is set to launch two missiles armed with nuclear warheads against Haifa and Tel Aviv As events spin out of control Waite and his accomplices realize that a nuclear holocaust is upon them In a race against all odds and the clock they set in motion a sequence of deadly events to halt a conflagration between the PLO and Israel With the Middle East peace efforts in a shambles and the region on the brink of nuclear annihilation Israel and the Palestinians must come to grips with the reality is it better to live together than die together in the lands of Abraham and Solomon Will the Mossad let them live to see the creation of a Palestinian State Will the duplicity of a secret agent make all their efforts in vain
