Linguistics Student's Handbook Laurie Bauer,2021-02-15 Laurie Bauer has expertly crafted a compendium of essential things for linguistics students to know from the IPA chart to the Saussurean dichotomies this book will be the constant companion of anyone undertaking studies of linguistics Part reference work part revision guide and with tables providing summary information on some 300 languages the book provides a new learning tool as a supplement to your usual textbooks Language, Minorities and Human Rights Fernand de Varennes,2021-09-27 One of the most vexing issues in many of the world s so called ethnic or minority conflicts is the question of language use by the State and its citizens While international and national law has traditionally viewed language preference to be within a State s prerogative at least when involving governmental activities and machinery this position has proved to be a continuous source of acrimony and conflict and wrong in some respects Language Minorities and Human Rights is the most complete book ever written on the topic providing for the first time an analysis of every aspect of language and the law In addition to presenting a theoretical model for language s particular position and relevance in human rights it constitutes an invaluable reference document by including the provisions of close to 100 international multilateral and bilateral instruments involving language rights as well as the constitutional provisions of 140 countries dealing with language By addressing little explored areas such as the language rights of indigenous peoples non citizens and even the use of script in addition to more traditional topics such as nationalism and language freedom of expression and non discrimination Language Minorities and Human Rights proposes a complete descriptive picture of language and human rights as well as proposing a number of suggestions on how to address and balance the many problems currently caused by the linguistic demands of various individuals and the interests of states in nation building Research in Education ,1971 Ibadan ,1975 Resources in Education ,1971 Précis from the Twelfth Conference on African Linguistics, Stanford, April 10-12, 1981 William Ronald Leben,1981 Nigerbiblios ,1982

Evidence for the Survival of African Prosodies in West Indian Creoles Hazel Carter,1979 The British National Bibliography ,1968 The Linguistic Reporter ,1972 Akamkpa Journal of Education ,1994 Igbo Traditional Life, Culture, and Literature Conch,1971 The Conch ,1971 The Urhobo Language Today Tanure Ojaide,Rose O. Aziza,2007 This is a pioneering work on Urhobo language and since language is not the restricted domain of only scholars of linguistics other aspects of the language or issues that impinge on language use are also discussed in this collection of essays by a eleven experts drawn from research institutes and universities Since literature is a vehicle of language the proverbs and axioms of the language as well as the oratorical and performance traditions in Urhobo are also covered competently Other cultural aspects especially music are also seen as enhancers of the language To underscore the significance of religion and language some contributors here examine the relationship between the Urhobo language and Christian evangelisation and between the language and the people s belief systems Another also explores the place of language in what has come to be known as Urhobo disco music The essays reinforce each other and some points are repeated for emphasis because of their cultural significance The closeness of several topics especially the challenges of the language and culture and on evangelisation in Urhobo as well as Gospel music in Urhobo is intended to exhaustively open up the Urhobo language debate Tanure Ojaide is Professor of African American and African Studies at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte where he teaches African Pan African literature and art Rose Aziza is the Head of Department of Languages and Linguistics and Director of the Urhobo Studies Programme at the Delta State University in Nigeria Combroad ,1985 Some issues include section Who s who in Commonwealth broadcasting Annals of Borno ,1989
