Twelve Who Prayed:

Twelve Who Prayed Mark Gibbard, 1977-01-01 Twelve Quakers and Prayer, 2013 What is prayer If it isn't pleading or wishing what is it What's the point when prayers are not answered Is prayer expecting God to do what we should do Can you pray if you don't believe in God Twelve Quakers respond to these and many more questions about prayer from their own experience Each responds differently Some recognize that how they know or understand God shapes their prayer life Some see praying as holding in the light Some know that letting go of self to enter into a greater self is crucial for them All see prayer as communication Simply and clearly they describe how they pray and tell of the changes it has made to their lives They hope their attempts will inspire readers to engage again with prayer in a more experimental and radical way Back cover

Life-study of Matthew Witness Lee, 2023-09-26 The Gospel of Matthew reveals that Christ is God incarnated to be the King Savior who came to establish the kingdom of the heavens by saving His people from sin through His death and resurrection Christ as the son of David according to the flesh came as the proper heir to the throne of David as God incarnate He came as the first God man God named Him Jesus yet He was called Emmanuel God with us by men As the new King Christ was recommended by John anointed by the Spirit and tested by the devil Having defeated the devil He began His ministry to establish the kingdom of the heavens Matthew presents the kingdom of the heavens in three aspects the reality of the kingdom of the heavens 5:1-7:29 the outward appearance of the kingdom of the heavens 13:1-52 and the manifestation of the kingdom of the heavens 24:1-25:46 Author Witness Lee reveals that the reality of the kingdom is simply the King Himself sown into humanity as the seed of the kingdom This kingdom seed containing the kingdom life and nature will grow and develop in the believers constituting them the reality of the kingdom until it is brought to full maturity as the manifestation of the kingdom In particular it explains the crucial difference between the kingdom of the heavens and the kingdom of God and presents a clear understanding of the Lord's prophecies concerning Israel the church and the nations at the consummation of the age

Communion with Christ and His People Peter J. Morden, 2014-01-31 Charles Haddon Spurgeon 1834-1892 was the most famous Baptist minister of his generation For such a significant figure he has received surprisingly little scholarly coverage This present work seeks to make a contribution to Spurgeon studies by examining him through the lens of his spirituality A wealth of primary material much of it previously untapped is used to build up a picture of his spiritual life Whereas older and more recent interpretations of Spurgeon have a tendency to be one-dimensional examination of his spirituality reveals him to be a complex figure one who was molded by a diverse range of factors Despite this complexity a unifying theme for Spurgeon's spirituality is traced and fresh light is shed on the foremost popular preacher of the Victorian age

Catechism is divided into three parts The first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace In the first part Our Lord appears in His character of Teacher in the second in His character of King and in the third in His character of High Priest And since this Catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man s high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many This Catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of Our Lord s teaching and may be called a guide book for the Christian on the road to heaven Preface
