Urban Transcendence Youth Friends, 1998-05-01 Urban Religious Events Paul Bramadat, Mar Griera, Marian Burchardt, Julia Martinez-Ariño, 2021-04-08 How might we best understand the relationship between the vibrant religious landscapes we see in many cities and contemporary urban social processes Through case studies drawn from around the world contributors explore the ways in which these processes interact in cities This book argues that religious events including rituals processions and festivals are not only choreographies of sacred traditions but they are also creative disruptions that reveal how urban cultural hierarchies are experienced and contested Exposing the power dynamics behind these events this book shows how performative uses of urban space serve to destabilize dominant genealogies and lineages around urban identities just as they lay claims to cultural supremacy or heritage Through exploring the affective disruptions and political controversies caused by religious events the contributors engage theoretical discussions in urban studies the sociology of religion and the ethnography of ritual This book is a significant contribution to understanding emerging patterns in contemporary religion and also for theories related to heritagization eventization and urbanization Spirit in the Cities Kathryn Tanner, In recent decades economic dislocation immigration new architecture and other forces have transformed the physical social and even religious landscape of large cities There gleaming skyscrapers tower over struggling ghettos abandoned businesses mar upscale shopping areas and tall steeple churches sometimes languish where storefront mosques thrive Exploring the religious significance of this new urban landscape a group of theologians members of the Workgroup on Constructive Christian Theology traveled to select cities and found an exciting vibrant and multivoiced religious spirit at work In these essays five leading American theologians delve deeply into the contemporary spiritual geographies of five cities capturing through a mix of personal and historical narrative political analysis and theological rumination a sense of this new sacred space and the spirit aborning there Transcendence of an Urban Individual Jill Sharon Wiles, 2003 Shamanic Performances on the Urban Scene Galina Lindquist, 1997 Reconciling the Urban Designer with Landscape Ecology Katya Podsiadlo, 2003 The Philosophy of Urban Existence Arthur Kalmer Bierman, 1973 Humanitas, 1968 and a phenomenological account of habitat and the urban body is presented in relation to Bogotá The Urban Land Rent Lionel Y. Nicol, 1978 After the First Urban Christians Todd D. Still, David G. Horrell, 2009-11-13 After the First Urban Christians introduces the groundbreaking volume The First Urban Christians to a new generation of students, scholars, and even general readers Can Man Transcend His Culture?, 1973 Far from Home Ron Powers, 1991 Pulitzer Prize winner Ron Powers White Town Drowsing which detailed the history of Mark Twain's Hannibal, Missouri, was hailed by the Los Angeles Times as a work of surpassing eloquence. Now Powers tells the contrasting stories of Cairo, Illinois, and Kent, Connecticut Wild V. United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, 1982 Judgment as Belief Thomas Albert Lewis, 1910 The Urban Ideal Paolo Soleri, 2001 Architect, artist, craftsman, and philosopher Paolo Soleri is among the most important figures in modern architecture. His visionary urban designs, his monumental urban laboratory Arcosanti, constructed in the high Arizona desert, and perhaps above all his persuasively articulated philosophy of life, reflect a force of intellect and invention rare on the contemporary scene Urban Intersections Sidney H. Bremer, 1992 While Theodore Dreiser, Upton Sinclair, and Nathanael West went on to describe the alienating machinery of the city, other writers were exploring life on New York's Jewish Lower East Side in Harlem during its renaissance in the South, and even in Chicago in stories of home within the city of struggling toward social identity of dignity and strength. Bremer argues that these works constitute a countertradition worthy of attention. Beginning with a discussion of how we define texts as urban, Bremer shows how city-town imagery in literature emphasizes flexibility, communal values, and multiple perspectives as characters create and interpret newborn American cities. She then shifts from this regional perspective to the post-Romantic turn of the century, Chicago as the national epitome of literature's anti-natural economic city Urban Excess and the Law Christopher Stanley, 1996 This book sets out to confront the complexities of everyday life in contemporary urban culture from the perspective of the relationship between law, desire, and transgression. It raises questions and possibilities regarding justice, community, and dissent Diez lecciones sobre Barcelona Manuel de Solà-Morales i Rubió, 2008 A collection of lessons that Manuel de Solà Morales gave during the course Introduction to Urbanism at the School of Architecture of Barcelona between 1975 and 1983. 10 theses by individual chapters show the why and how of Barcelona today. Morales updates the original text with his perspectives 25 years later The Urban Community American Sociological Society, 1926
