Urge For Justice

Florence Elizabeth Chandler Maybrick

Urge For Justice:

The Nation ,1919      Queenland Justice of the Peace and Local Authorities' Journal ,1907      Blacks and Social Justice Bernard R. Boxill,1992-08-27 In this acclaimed study Bernard Boxill examines the works of modern theorists James Coleman Robert Nozick Ernest Van den Haag Milton Friedman William Julius Wilson and Ronald Dworkin among others and classical thinkers such as Karl Marx John Stuart Mill and W E B Dubois to delineate the principal arguments for and against the major racial issues of our time The revised edition includes a major new chapter The Surrender to Injustice which critically examines the recent challenges to traditional analyses of the effects of racism by William Julius Wilson Glenn Loury and Shelby Steele Back cover      Masonic Voice-review ,1919      Advocate of Peace Through Justice ,1920      Restriction of Immigration United States. Congress. House. Committee on Immigration and Naturalization,1925      Discrimination and Access to Justice in Africa Wellman Kondowe,Paul Svongoro,2025-05-23 There are different forms of discrimination Among others people can be discriminated against on the basis of their ethnic grouping political affiliation race gender age and language This book focuses on linguistic discrimination in Africa acknowledging that language plays a key role in the delivery of justice and much of what transpires in justice systems deals with language use It argues that to achieve fairness the state has a responsibility to put in place accommodations aimed at reducing linguistic vulnerability The collection interrogates some of the issues that are common in Africa which is arguably one of the most linguistically diverse continents in the world bringing together a collection of case studies from Malawi South Africa Zimbabwe Tanzania Kenya and Zambia It presents practical insights from academics legal professionals and social scientists Divided into five thematic parts the first addresses communication and linguistic challenges faced by children in the legal system Theme 2 examines the position of witnesses with physical challenges The third theme focuses on language as a barrier in access to justice Theme 4 looks at the language of the court as a major barrier to the poor and the illiterate The fifth and final theme examines the position of women in sexual assault cases The collection will be of interest to academics researchers and policymakers working in the areas of law and language human rights law criminology linguistics and African Studies      Eight Theories of Justice Karen Lebacqz,Matthew J. Gaudet,2025-04-01 There may be no more urgent cry than that for justice and no more frequent accusation than that of injustice But what is meant when these terms are used Since its initial publication nearly forty years ago Karen Lebacqz s Six Theories of Justice has been the go to guide for answering this question But today the matters upon which it touches are even more acute Eight Theories of Justice offers a major update and expansion of the earlier text Together with coauthor Matthew J Gaudet Lebacqz presents the major alternative views of justice including John Stuart Mill s utilitarianism the contract system of John Rawls the entitlement views of Robert Nozick and the communitarian ideas of Michael Sandel These political and philosophical accounts of justice are supplemented with analysis of major theological approaches Pope Francis and Catholic social teaching Reinhold Niebuhr and Christian realism the Black liberation theology of James Cone and Katie Cannon's womanist ethics. Each chapter introduces the major elements of each theory, presents the best critiques of each theory, and offers an assessment of their value for living justly in the modern world.

A Travesty of Justice Florence Elizabeth Chandler Maybrick, 1904

Justice of the Peace, 1903

Justice Milton Fisk, 1993-05-01

This volume aims to capture the basic thrust of progressive views about justice in the recent period. Fisk's selections show that in the ground-breaking work now being done, there is a unity of ethical and political considerations. Theoretical concerns and studies of practical justice are also addressed. The editor incorporates high theory as expounded by figures like Rawls and Habermas, as well as applications to issues of race, gender, law, ecology, and class. Since the 19th-century intellectual background is important for studying current developments in justice, J. S. Mill, Marx, and T. H. Green are also included to represent the current of social change from that time. Finally, recent debates on whether justice can be colour- or gender-blind are represented in the writings of a number of known African American and women writers. The anthology focuses on applied issues. It should be of interest to students taking courses in political philosophy, political theory, ethics, social theory, and intellectual history. It should also be a useful guide for graduate students and instructors who wish to follow the current debate on justice.
