

The background of the cover is a stylized illustration. A child wearing a bright red hooded coat and dark pants is walking away from the viewer on a floor with a large blue and tan checkered pattern. The child is heading towards a large, imposing building with a central entrance and several windows. The sky is a gradient of blue and orange, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is contemplative and somewhat somber.

When Schools Complete A Cautionary Tale:

Dos & Don'ts of Education Reform Anthony M. Roselli,2005 Dos Don'ts of Education Reform is a unique critical study of legislated reform in the U S Resisting the temptation to make facile recommendations for future action this book takes pointed aim at the failure of education reform Roselli blames a narrow minded focus on testing and accountability advocating instead for an honest morally driven construction of theory and practice He breaks new ground in this close multidisciplinary examination of curriculum instruction and assessment by demonstrating how to create the conditions for a successful school experience for all students a sociocultural view of success and a strong desire to improve the human condition This book is an excellent accompaniment to courses such as social foundations of education and critical issues in education as well as those dealing with educational policy and leadership

Cities around the World Jing Luo,2019-07-10 This two volume set offers a comprehensive overview of major challenges faced by cities worldwide in the 21st century and how cities in different geographic economic and political conditions are finding solutions to them This two volume encyclopedia examines ten critical issues that face cities across the globe today environmental and societal struggles that affect the daily lives of city dwellers Readers will gain a better understanding of our global neighbors and will be able to use this book in order to compare and contrast different approaches to critical issues in our world Volume One examines employment and jobs energy and sustainability green spaces housing and infrastructure and migration and demographic changes Volume Two discusses pollution schools traffic and transportation violence corruption and organized crime and waste management Each issue begins with an introduction providing an overview of the issue from a global perspective Following the introduction are ten alphabetically arranged world city profiles of cities that are struggling with the issue and cities that have found innovative solutions to deal with the crisis The profiles explain how the problem came to be consequences inhabitants face such as compromised health limited access to education and high taxes with low wages and failed and successful initiatives taken by city management The Publishers Weekly ,1929 The School Librarian ,2004 The New Statesman ,1924

When Schools Compete Edward B. Fiske,Helen F. Ladd,2000 In 1989 New Zealand abolished its national Department of Education and turned control of its 2700 primary and secondary schools over to locally elected boards of trustees This book provides detailed quantitative and qualitative analysis of the New Zealand experiment PISA Are Students Ready for a Technology-Rich World? What PISA Studies Tell Us OECD,2006-01-25 Drawing on data from the OECD's Programme for International Student Assessment PISA this book examines how extensive access to ICT is in schools how it is used by students and how it impacts student performance The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1924
