O'Hanlon, 2021-03-01 We live in an Ireland and a world where conventional economic models have failed politics is fractured what it means to be human is contested and opposition between secularists and believers is conducted like some kind of Punch and Judy show The dominant narrative of our time is spent What might replace it A group of individuals with expertise in different fields of Irish life have come together to make a case for constructive engagement and dialogue between secularists and religious believers in order to imagine an alternative narrative for our day This narrative involving a more participatory democracy would be in service of social and ecological justice and human flourishing It is a narrative that would welcome input from secular sources and religious voices from poor and rich people from atheists and believers from scientists and philosophers from poets and theologians The present book is the fruit of their sharing and deliberations It is their hope that they can contribute to a more widespread dialogue of hope that will champion an inclusive vision of society where all can flourish and feel at home The Hibbert Journal Lawrence Pearsall Jacks, George Dawes Hicks, 1922 The Freedom of Surrender Mary DeMuth, 2025-10-14 Find joy and freedom in surrender Letting go is hard To surrender is to let go of what we tightly grip the good and the bad It s a relinquishing of control a recognition that God alone can meet our deepest needs It s a holy pause that entrusts each hope each worry and each pressing concern to the One whose love for us is beyond measure And in this surrender we enter into freedom But even so letting go often feels easier said than done In The Freedom of Surrender author Mary DeMuth invites you to journey through forty days of entrusting specific areas of your life to God your inner struggles your family your expectations your regrets your ministry your grief your relationships your job your health your finances your future and more Every daily devotion includes Scripture prayer and Mary s original art that help you cast each care on the One who cares for you On this forty day journey you ll learn How to trust that God is in control even in moments of chaos and stress True joy and freedom can happen when we release what we re holding too tightly God s plan is to see you thrive and grow Prayer opens the door to freedom and peace Even in your struggles you are never alone When we entrust our stresses and worries to God we embrace the reality that s always been true Our control is an illusion God alone can meet our needs heal our wounds and guide our steps From this place of total reliance on God we can experience deep joy and the peace that passes understanding What are you holding too tightly Experience freedom as you invite Jesus to help you surrender all
