The Unknown History of Jewish Women On Learning and Illiteracy On Slavery and Liberty is a comprehensive study on the history of Jewish women which discusses their absence from the Jewish Hebrew library of the People of the Book and interprets their social condition in relation to their imposed ignorance and exclusion from public literacy The book begins with a chapter on communal education for Jewish boys which was compulsory and free of charge for the first ten years in all traditional Jewish communities The discussion continues with the striking absence of any communal Jewish education for girls until the late nineteenth and early twentieth century and the implications of this fact for twentieth century immigration to Israel 1949 1959 The following chapters discuss the social cultural and legal contexts of this reality of female illiteracy in the Jewish community a community that placed a supreme value on male education The discussion focuses on the patriarchal order and the postulations rules norms sanctions and mythologies that in antiquity and the Middle Ages laid the religious foundations of this discriminatory reality God's Grand Finale and the End of the Age Gary D. Through the ages many kings and prophets have desired to see the things we see and they did not see them we are the chosen generation Many prophecies of scripture are being fulfilled before our eyes and there are many more that are about to come The rebirth of the state of Israel and the return of the Jews to the Holy Land is prophesied more than any other event in scripture it is a sign of the times Theodor Herzl is considered to be the father of the modern state of Israel In his book The Jewish State published 1896 it is said that as a child he saw King Messiah in a dream who said to him Go declare to the Jews that I shall come soon and perform great wonders and great deeds for My people and for the whole world Theodor s prophetic dream comes to life in the Biblical prophecies presented in this book There is seen in the prophets a great and awesome SHOW of God s mighty power that shall take place in the last days It is a show of God s power that is greater than anything He has done before it is God s Grand Finale End Time events and the return of Christ will soon follow The Antithesis of the Ages Stephan K. Davis,2023-11-16 Davis seeks to recast the traditional perception of Paul s polarization of the Torah and Christ in terms of an inherent antithesis of history this age and eschatology the age to come In the early chapters he investigates the role of Wisdom and Torah in biblical and in Second Temple literature in order to construct a context for interpreting Paul's view of the Torah. In the balance he applies his conclusions to three Pauline texts understood to express this antithesis. By concentrating on the link he perceives between Paul's rejection of eternal Torah theology and its replacement with Christ, thereby allowing Paul to reconfigure the place of the Torah apart from those elements, Davis wants to offer a new way to construe the Paul and Torah riddle. The Divine Plan of the Ages Charles Taze Russell, 1922

Kingdom Theology G. Carlton Moore, 2024-06-18. What this book argues for in today's twenty-first century church was a hallmark doctrine of old school Presbyterianism of the nineteenth century: the doctrine of the spirituality of the church. Which eschatological approach one uses will affect one's understanding of the nature and practice of missions. Mission creep, the expansion of the church's original objective, is a real concern for the contemporary church, and how one understands eschatology affects one's focus on missions. The mission of the church is narrow (Matt 28:18-20) and the calling of individual believers is broad (Rom 12:1-2). If we fail to make this crucial distinction, the church's mission will lose its biblical emphasis. And if the church's mission is lost, then the authority structure instantiated in the offices and officers of the church devolves into illegitimacy because the church is no longer advancing the kingdom ends she was mandated to do by King Jesus. If the institutional church fails to do this, we will be relinquishing and abdicating and abandoning our most singular and particular and peculiar kingdom of God: vocation, the harvesting, gathering, and perfecting of the saints. The Lessons of the Age Frederick W.
