Writing The Self:

Writing the Self Peter Heehs, 2013-02-14 Named an Outstanding Academic Title of the Year for 2013 by Choice The self has a history In the West the idea of the soul entered Christianity with the Church Fathers notably Augustine During the Renaissance the idea of the individual attained preeminence as in the works of Montaigne In the 17th century philosophers such as Descartes formulated notions of self hood that did not require a divine foundation in the next century Hume grew skeptical of the self s very existence Ideas of the self have changed markedly since the Romantic period and most scholars today regard it as at best a mental construct First person genres such as diaries and memoirs have provided an outlet for self expression Protestant diaries replaced the Catholic confessional but secular diaries such as Pepys s may reveal yet more about the self After Richardson novels competed with diaries and memoirs as vehicles of self expression though memoirs survived and continue to thrive while the diary has found a new incarnation in the personal blog Writing the Self narrates the intertwined histories of the self and of self expression through first person literature The Traveling and Writing Self Marguerite Helmers, Tilar Mazzeo, 2009-03-26 The collected essays that comprise The Traveling and Writing Self examine the critical relationship between the journey the author of the travel narrative and published and private texts Contributors draw attention to the performed nature of the travel writer s self emphasizing that the carefully crafted persona of the traveler protagonist is a fiction The traveler s identity is frequently in flux negotiating between social convention literary convention personal motivations and nationalist agendas The Traveling and Writing Self is a notable addition to studies of travel writing because the contributors explore several genres in addition to the traditional accounts of the journey these genres include histories of exploration diaries memoir poetry film and short story Not limited to a specific historical era or geographical location individual chapters explore the work of Rebecca Solnit Isak Dinesen Melinda Atwood William Byrd E J Pratt Beatrice Grimshaw and Louisa May Alcott From each we learn that perhaps the most interesting subject of any travel account is the author The Beginners' Guide to Writing, Self-Publishing and Marketing a Book Kehinde Adesina, Taiwo Adesina,

Self-regulated Learning and Second Language Writing Lin Sophie Teng, 2022-05-30 This monograph is to investigate practical applications and contributions of self regulated learning SRL to second foreign language L2 writing from sociocognitive and sociocultural perspectives It showcases a comprehensive and updated review of conceptual and methodological issues of SRL and the state of the art research on its applications to L2 learning and teaching This volume further elaborates the design and results of a large scale project which conducts observational and intervention studies investigating SRL strategies in L2 writing This book reveals that a cross disciplinary understanding of SRL strategies plays a crucial role in advancing theoretical functions of SRL and in extending its applications to L2 education in general and L2 writing in particular This book makes significant contributions to developing and validating new conceptual frameworks and tools for evaluating multidimensional structures of SRL strategies and self efficacy in L2 writing elucidating the interplay of personal behavioral environmental and psychological factors with SRL strategies and writing performance and presenting an effective self regulation instructional model for nurturing L2 learners motivation and confidence to strategize reflect and succeed in writing Teng has established herself as one of the prominent scholars in the discussion of self regulated learning strategies Her contribution to the fields of L2 writing and strategic learning are undeniable This monograph is an excellent showing of how her endeavors to bring established theories from educational psychology to applied writing research have progressed over a number of methodologically rigorous studies It should be required reading for anyone with an interest in cultivating strategic writers not only in the Chinese context but worldwide Nathan Thomas UCL Institute of Education

The Self on the Page Celia Hunt, Fiona Sampson, 1998 In this ground breaking work the rapidly developing field of the therapeutic use of creative writing is explored on two levels Intended as an introduction to the field it will interest health professionals and those working in the social services Writing for Self-discovery Myra Schneider, 1998 Teaching Arabs, Writing Self Evelyn Shakir, 2013-11-01 Evelyn Shakir's witty wise and beautifully written memoir explores her status as an Arab American woman from the subtle bigotry she faced in Massachusetts as a second generation Lebanese whose parents were not only foreign but eccentric to the equally poignant blend of dislocation and homecoming she felt in Bahrain Syria and Lebanon where she taught American literature to university students She effortlessly combines personal anecdote with cultural political and historical background and is incapable of stereotyped thinking one of the book's many pleasures is the diversity she finds among the people she encounters in the Middle East including not only students but cab drivers storekeepers and the guys who make the spinach pies at the bakery down the street from her apartment As Shakir explores her own identity she leads the reader to an appreciation of the richness and complexity of being Arab American or any mixed heritage in an increasingly small world Automatic Writing Anita Mary Mühl, 1930 New American Shorthand for Self-instruction and for Use in Schools and Colleges Alfred Day, 1896 Teacher's Manual for Self-help Remedial Lessons in Capitalization and Punctuation Detroit (Mich.). Board of Education, 1928 Writing Desire Bertram Cohler, 2007-03-07 Exploring nearly sixty years of memoir and autobiography Writing Desire examines the changing identity of gay men writing within a historical context Distinguished scholar and psychoanalyst Bertram J Cohler has carefully selected a diverse group of ten men including historians activists journalists poets performance artists and bloggers whose life writing evokes the evolution of gay life in twentieth century America By contrasting the personal experience of these disparate writers Cohler illustrates the social transformations that these men helped shape Among Cohler's diverse subjects is Alan Helms whose journey from Indiana to New York's gay society represents the passage of men who came of age in the 1950s and 1960s when homosexuality was considered a hidden disease The liberating effects of Stonewall's aftermath are chronicled in the life of Arnie Kantrowitz the prototypical activist for gay rights in the 1970s and the founder the Gay and Lesbian Alliance against Defamation The artistic works of Tim Miller and Mark Doty evoke loss and shock during of the early stages of the AIDS epidemic in the 1980s Cohler rounds out this collective group portrait by looking at the newest generation of writers in the Internet age via the blog of BrYaN who did the previously unthinkable he outed himself to millions of people A compelling mix of social history and personal biography Writing Desire distills the experience of three generations of gay America Finalist LGBT Studies Lambda Literary Foundation

ship resistance and propulsion university of southampton - Dec 07 2022

web module overview this module identifies the fundamental aspects and describes practical approaches for ship resistance and associated propulsion including propeller design and engine selection students will estimate the ship resistance and design propeller to fulfil the propulsion requirement ship resistance and propulsion practical estimation of ship propulsive - Jan 28 2022 web sep 1 2011 abstract ship resistance and propulsion is dedicated to providing a comprehensive and modern scientific approach to evaluating ship resistance and propulsion this book written by experts in the web sep 7 2011 the selection of propulsion machinery and plant layout will depend on design features such as space weight and noise levels together with overall requirements including areas of operation running costs and maintenance all of these factors will depend on the ship type its function and operational patterns resistance and propulsion characteristics of various commercial ships - Oct 05 2022 web may 1 2010 this paper uses computational tools to examine the speed performance of various types of commercial ships including resistance and propulsion characteristics eight commercial ships built in the last decade were selected for the study ship resistance and propulsion cambridge university press - Feb 09 2023 web this second edition provides a comprehensive and scientific approach to evaluating ship resistance and propulsion written by experts in the field it includes the latest developments in cfd experimental techniques and guidance for the practical estimation of ship propulsive power ship resistance and propulsion wikipedia - Jul 14 2023

powering process chapter 13 ship resistance and propulsion - Jul 02 2022

web ship resistance is defined as the force required to tow the ship in calm water at a constant velocity components of resistance a body in water which is stationary with respect to water experiences only hydrostatic pressure hydrostatic pressure always acts to oppose the weight of the body

pdf resistance and propulsion of ships semantic - May 12 2023

web 1962 tldr the method utilizes a source density distribution on the surface of the body and solves for the distribution necessary to make the normal velocity zero on the boundary and the flow velocities at points both on and off the body surface are calculated 698
