Social Trends (33rd edition) NA NA,2003-01-30 This is the 33rd edition of Social Trends one of the flagship publications from the Office for National Statistics It draws together statistics from a wide range of government departments and other organisations to paint a broad picture of our society today and how it has been changing Each of the 13 chapters focuses on a different social policy area described in tables figures and explanatory text This year Social Trends features an article on social capital which describes how people s interaction with family friends and others can benefit themselves and the wider community This title is ideal for policy makers in the public and private sectors service providers people in local government journalists and other commentators academics and students schools and the general public Constructive Work with Offenders Nigel Parton,Marilyn Gregory,Michelle Hayles,Kevin Gorman,2006-01-27 This book offers a challenge to many of the assumptions of criminal justice policy and the dominant approaches to practice The contributors advocate an emphasis on constructive work with offenders that harnesses their positive strengths and resources and offers inclusive approaches to effective offender assessment and intervention Constructive Work with Offenders Kevin Gorman,2006 Constructive Work with Offenders offers a challenge to many of the assumptions of criminal justice policy and the dominant approaches to practice The contributors advocate an emphasis on constructive work with offenders that harnesses their positive strengths and resources and offers inclusive approaches to effective offender assessment and intervention Taking a fresh look at much received knowledge they proclaim that constructive work with offenders is both possible and increasingly warranted and encourage practitioners to develop new skills and adapt existing expertise to the rapidly changing requirements of the criminal justice system This book will be of interest to practitioners trainers managers and researchers in the criminal justice system as well as academics and students in the field of criminology and related disciplines Poverty and Inclusion in Early Years Education Mark Cronin,Karen Argent,Chris Collett,2017-10-05 Poverty and Inclusion in Early Years Education will help practitioners to understand the experiences of young children who are living in poverty It examines the potentially devastating impact of poverty and social exclusion on children s chances in later life and considers recent policy and practice reforms which have recognised the critical role played by early years settings and practitioners in guaranteeing a secure foundation for children s future attainment The book explores the historical political and legal aspects of policy on poverty and social exclusion before offering guidance on how practitioners can help to address the inequalities caused by poverty and break the cycle of deprivation Chapters go on to address the practicalities of working with children families and agencies to create an inclusive early years environment and focus on issues including developing effective partnerships with families collaborating with outside agencies encouraging awareness of different socio economic backgrounds With case studies reflective questions and further reading included throughout to help the reader to apply the ideas to their own practice the book will be an invaluable resource for early years practitioners students and all those wishing to promote social inclusion and tackle the impact of social exclusion and poverty in early years settings Radical Approaches to the Care Crisis Anne M. Gray, 2025-04-04 This book explores the critical issue of how to manage the ever increasing demand for social care in Britain's ageing society. With informal care from family members and friends now the dominant form of adult social care in the UK, this precarious system is struggling to provide enough support. Exploring the relationship between formal and informal care, this book develops ideas for a caring economy showing the potential to integrate paid for and unpaid care within a framework of solidarity based on the strengths of the community working to improve the quality and quantity of state funded care provision while sharing unpaid support more widely as a community responsibility Key Indicators, 2002

Design for Education Ana Rute Costa, Rachel Cooper, 2024-07-31 This book charts the impact of design on education specifically focusing on how design can shape the spaces and tools for learning. This edited collection brings together the work of designers, architects, engineers, professionals, educators and researchers and presents a series of case studies and research developed from across Europe, North America, South America, Africa, Australia and Asia. The book provides the tools to develop innovative approaches to design for education and illustrates the conversation and action required to foster socially responsible design for education. As the contributions show, we must look at education as an input and output of a complex system and we need to adopt an interdisciplinary, multiple stakeholder approach bringing together experts from a range of different fields and backgrounds as a cohesive strategy to improve future learning and teaching environments. Providing guidance and a theoretical framework for designing spaces and tools for learning, this book will be a useful resource for design and architecture students as well as practitioners, educational researchers, educational practitioners, policymakers and behaviour and built environment researchers International Bibliography, 1987 Politics UK Bill Jones, Philip Norton, Isabelle Hertner, 2021-07-29 This revised and updated tenth edition of the bestselling textbook Politics UK is an indispensable introduction to British politics. It provides a thorough and accessible overview of the institutions and processes of British government, an excellent grounding in British political history and an incisive introduction to the issues and challenges facing Britain today. This edition welcomes three brand new chapters: Elites in the United Kingdom, Gender and British politics and UK Immigration policy in hostile environment, alongside rigorously updated revised chapters. It delivers excellent coverage of contemporary events with significant new material covering the Johnson premiership and the national challenge of Covid-19, the end of the May premiership and the implementation of Brexit, the Labour Party's transition from Corbyn to Starmer, infrastructure and innovation, fake news, populism and nationalism, the UK's place in a post-Brexit world, climate change, social mobility and elite recruitment, devolution and regionalism, constitutional strain, the role of political advisers, abuse and incivility in politics and much more. Other features of the new edition include a wide range of illustrative material, boxes and case studies providing illuminating examples alongside the analysis, a comprehensive who's who of politics in the form of Profile boxes featuring key political figures, and another thing pieces containing short articles.
