The Need for Contemplation René Voillaume,1972 To many contemplation is something reserved for the monk in his cell or for the hermit who has turned aside from the humdrum of everyday living This book dispels that myth by showing how vital conteplation is for the life of prayer of each one of us The author aims to encourage a more deliberate and more universal diffusion of contemplative though throughout the entire Christian society He shows the need for contemplation at the outset by going right to the heart of prayer and develops this by describing the ideal of the fusion of contemplation with the demonstration of love to the world outside Back cover
