Yves Gambier, Luc van Doorslaer

Translation And Power:

Translation, Power, Subversion Román Alvarez, M. Carmen Africa Vidal, 1996 This is a study of the relationship between translation culture and counterculture presenting a political and ideological vision of translating Offering an approach to the cultural turn in Translation Studies at the end of the century the book endeavours to explore the closer links between cultural studies and translation It presents the arguments of several scholars on the most innovative ways of understanding translation in order to clarify the role and function of translations and translators in culture and society

Self-Translation and Power Olga Castro, Sergi Mainer, Svetlana Page, 2017-08-07 This book investigates the political social cultural and economic implications of self translation in multilingual spaces in Europe Engaging with the power turn in translation studies contexts it offers innovative perspectives on the role of self translators as cultural and ideological mediators The authors explore the unequal power relations and centre periphery dichotomies of Europe s minorised languages literatures and cultures They recognise that the self translator s double affiliation as author and translator places them in a privileged position to challenge power to negotiate the experiences of the subaltern and colonised and to scrutinise conflicting minorised vs hegemonic cultural identities Three main themes are explored in relation to self translation hegemony and resistance self minorisation and self censorship and collaboration hybridisation and invisibility This edited collection will appeal to scholars and students working on translation transnational and postcolonial studies and multilingual and multicultural identities

Translation and the Reconfiguration of Power Relations Beatrice Fischer, Matilde Nisbeth Jensen, 2012 This volume presents translation as a powerful activity by revisiting the roles of translators and interpreters and the contexts of translation and interpreting in societies affected by globalization and migration The articles cover topics such as the impact languages have on translation the institutional constraints in the context of translation and the challenges within the framework of multimodal translation In recent years questions of power in translation have emerged In such a context the book presents new research paths that can be related to some of the most discussed issues of recent years in Translation Studies The contributors are 14 PhD students who investigate the power relations in the context of censorship ideology localization multimodal translation English as a lingua franca in translation mandatory genres and translation by non professional subject matter translators Series Representation Transformation Translating across Cultures and Societies Vol 7

Translation and Global Spaces of Power Stefan Baumgarten, Jordi Cornellà-Detrell, 2018-10-09 This book focuses on the role of translation in a globalising world It presents a series of case studies that explore the ways in which translation is subject to ideology and power play across diverging domains and genres Broadly based on a discussion of translation and the economies of power the chapters examine an array of contextual and textual factors ranging from global regional and institutional power relations to the linguistic stylistic and rhetorical implications of translation decisions The book maps the multiple ways in which power relations and ideological positions affect cross cultural communication with special reference to repressive practices in history translation policies media power and commercial hegemonies It concludes that future translation research will benefit from a more sustained emphasis on the power of technology and economic capital

Handbook of Translation Studies Yves Gambier, Luc van Doorslaer, 2013-12-20 As a meaningful manifestation of how institutionalized the discipline has become the new Handbook of Translation Studies is most welcome It joins the other signs of maturation such as Summer Schools the development of academic curricula historical surveys journals book series textbooks terminologies bibliographies and encyclopedias The HTS aims at disseminating knowledge about translation and interpreting and providing easy access to a large range of topics traditions and methods to a relatively broad audience not only students who often adamantly prefer such user friendliness researchers and lecturers in Translation Studies Translation but also scholars and experts from other disciplines among which linguistics sociology history psychology In addition the HTS addresses any of those with a professional or personal interest in the problems of translation interpreting localization editing etc such as communication specialists journalists literary critics editors public servants business managers intercultural organization specialists media specialists marketing professionals The usability accessibility and flexibility of the HTS depend on the commitment of people who agree that Translation Studies does matter All users are therefore invited to share their feedback Any questions remarks and suggestions for improvement can be sent to the editorial team at hts.kuleuven.be Next to the book edition in printed and electronic PDF format HTS is also available as an online resource connected with the Translation Studies Bibliography For access to the Handbook of Translation Studies Online please visit <http://www.benjamins.com/online/hts>

Translation, Power, Subversion Román Alvarez, M. Carmen-África Vidal, 1999 The starting point of this book is the idea that language is not neutral and that insofar as language is the translator's tool the act of translating is not neutral either Translating can never be neutral as it is charged with ideology and games of power
