Spectres of Reparation in South Africa Jaco Barnard-Naude,2023-08-25 This book argues that South Africa is haunted by the spectre of reparation The failure of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission to secure adequate reparation for the victims of colonisation and apartheid continues to drastically undermine the commission s processes and legacy Investigating the TRC s key processes of amnesty archiving and forgiveness in turn the book demonstrates that each process is fundamentally thwarted by the terminal lack of reparation These multiple forms of the spectre of reparation haunt post apartheid society in deeply traumatogenic ways The book proposes a new ethic of reparative citizenship as a means of encountering the spectres of reparation in a productive and transformative manner generating hope even in the face of the irreparable This book will be an important read for South Africans interested in overcoming the impasses and injustices that haunt the country but it will also be of interest to post conflict transitional justice and politics researchers more broadly The Open Court ,1889

The Art of Remembering Yat Ming Loo,Hua Li,Jing Xie,Eugenio Mangi,2024-05-31 Focusing on the non Western context and case studies this book explores theories of interdisciplinary architectural thinking and the construction of urban memory in Chinese cities with an emphasis on contemporary architecture and the diversity of agencies China has undergone one of the fastest urbanisation and urban renewal processes in human history but discussions of urban memory in China have tended to be practice oriented and lack theoretical reflection This book brings together interdisciplinary architectural scholarship to interrogate the production of urban memory and examine experiences in China The 14 chapters explore different processes projects materials architecture and urban spaces in different Chinese cities by analysing cityscapes such as temples bridges conservation projects architectural design historical architecture memorial hall market street city images custom bike food market and so on The book deals with different agencies and methods tangible and intangible in the construction of memories aimed at promoting hybridised multiple identities and explores the interplay of different versions of memory i e state public regional local individual and collective memory This book will be essential reading for scholars and students of architecture and urbanism cultural studies and China studies as well as architects urban planners and historians interested in these fields
