Two Outsiders:

Education Pack "All different - All equal" 4th edition Rui Gomes, Anca-Ruxandra Pandeia, Patricia Brander, Laure de Witte, Gavan Titley, 2024-10-01 An invaluable education pack proposing resources and activities for education and action with young people against racism and discrimination It is easy to say I have no prejudices or I m not racist so it has nothing to do with me It is much harder to say I may not be to blame for what happened in the past but I want to take responsibility for making sure it doesn t continue in the future Many young people in Europe and beyond defied the pandemic and took to the streets in 2020 to express their sorrow and their anger in the aftermath of George Floyd s death in Minneapolis at the hands of a white policeman This also served as a wake up call to the daily systemic and sometimes structural forms of racial discrimination which are visible across Europe expressed in hate speech or outright physical violence and which target people on the basis of their characteristics or identity including age colour of skin disability ethnicity gender legal status nationality origin race religion and belief sex and sexual orientation Youth leaders and human rights activists turned to the Council of Europe the guardian of human rights in Europe for responses support and in particular what the youth sector could propose A consultation with youth workers and specialists in human rights education concluded that part of the response has to be educational The rise of populist nationalist and xenophobic ideas and discourse must also be countered through democratic citizenship and human rights education including anti racism education and intercultural learning Education remains an important antidote to racism and prejudice This manual was originally produced in 1995 for the European youth campaign against racism antisemitism xenophobia and intolerance It has been updated and extended to reflect the kaleidoscope of racial discrimination in Europe today and the mutations of racist discourses and ideologies It contains basic information and hands on non formal education methodologies for supporting young people in learning about and addressing prejudice and its impact on people and societies

Blackbirds Ryan Verniere, 2022-10-04 Blackbirds is a dark fantasy tabletop role playing game The gods failed us The powerful betrayed us Rise to meet your fate Twelve years of war have ravaged the kingdoms of Erebos where the great battle that would decide the fate of all has been waged and lost Now the lights of civilization are going out Swells of refugees have taken to the roads desperate to find homes far from all the suffering New constellations twinkle in the vault of the night only to disappear if scrutinized for too long Creatures of long forgotten folklore once again stalk the countryside It is a time of ill omens and unlikely heroes BLACKBIRDS RPG is set in a dark fantasy world where a cabal of power hungry Oligarchs has stolen godhood Their horrific act rent the fabric of reality allowing corrupt magic to undermine the world s natural order And soon the Oligarchs themselves will return to the mortal plane and remake it as they desire

Education Pack "all different - all equal" 2021 Rui Gomes, Anca-Ruxandra Pandeia, Patricia Brander, Laure de Witte, Gavan Titley, 2021-11-22 It is easy to say I have no prejudices I m not racist so it has nothing to do with me I didn t invite those refugees It is hard to say I may not be to blame for what happened in the past but I want to take responsibility for making sure it doesn't continue in the future. The Education Pack, all different all equal, was originally produced in 1995 as an educational resource for the European youth campaign against racism, antisemitism, xenophobia, and intolerance. Soon after its publication, it became a reference work for those involved in intercultural education and training with young people across Europe and beyond. Translated into many languages, it remains today one of the most successful and most sought-after publications of the Council of Europe. The usefulness of the pack stems from the variety and creativity of the methodologies proposed. More than twenty years after the all different all equal campaign, the role plays, simulation exercises, case studies, and cooperative group work that it proposes remain an inspiration to many youth workers, trainers, teachers, and other people actively involved in intercultural education. European societies continue to suffer from a growth of racist hostility and intolerance towards minorities and foreigners; the necessity for intercultural youth work remains undiminished, and the relevance of this pack remains unquestionable. Little bit has been changed in this new edition of the pack, apart from an updating of references. Most changes are visible and usable only in the online version, which offers relevant links with other resources for human rights education, which continue the legacy of the campaign: equality in dignity and rights, respect for broader appreciation of diversity.

Big Stick-Up at Brink's! Noel Behn, 2016-06-14. A riveting and frequently hilarious insider account of one of the twentieth century's most outrageous capers. On the evening of January 17, 1950, armed robbers wearing Captain Marvel masks entered the Brink's Armored Car building in Boston, Massachusetts. They walked out less than an hour later with more than 2.7 million in cash and securities. It was a brazen and expertly executed theft that captured the imaginations of millions of Americans and baffled the FBI and local law enforcement officials. But what appeared on the surface to be the perfect crime was in fact the end result of a mind-boggling series of mistakes, miscalculations, and missteps. The men behind the masks were not expert bank robbers but a motley crew of small-time crooks who stumbled their way into a record-breaking payday and managed to elude the long arm of the law for six years. New York Times bestselling author Noel Behn tape-recorded nearly one thousand hours of interviews with the surviving robbers, including motormouthed mastermind Tony Pino, a character so colorful he might have been dreamed up by a Hollywood screenwriter to tell the uncensored story of the heist, forever known as the Great Brink's Robbery. Fun and suspenseful from first page to last, Behn's true crime classic was the basis for The Brink's Job (1978), the Academy Award-nominated film directed by William Friedkin and starring Peter Falk and Peter Boyle.

The Economics of Motorsports Paulo Mourão, 2017-05-29. This book, the first study of its kind, examines the economics behind motorsports in particular Formula One. Chapters discuss the costs involved in Formula racing and how they are borne by teams, promoters, and racers. The book also looks at how society, the public, and the private sectors stand to benefit economically from the motorsport industry. Other issues like the economics of TV rights, sponsorship, and sustainability are also addressed, again for the first time in an economics book. Moving beyond the economics of what happens off the track, the book also undertakes a serious examination of what goes in to making a winning team and what having a winning racer can do for a team s fortunes Mour o s highly relevant and contemporary book also looks at how motorsport teams confront the challenges of the modern sporting world including the changing dynamics of sports media and considers the future of Formula 1 as motorsports evolve
