Christianity Made Simple David Hewetson,David Miller,1983

A Charitable Orthopathy John W. Morehead,Brandon C. Benziger,2020-04-07 Evangelicals and other conservative Christians of the twenty first century face enormous challenges in the pluralistic public square not least with Muslims and atheists Contrary to biblical injunctions to keep in step with the Spirit Gal 5 25b and to love our neighbors as ourselves e.g. Matt 22 37 40 Luke 10 25 37 both of which involve not only behavioral but also important affective elements we often harbor deep seated antipathies toward atheists and adherents of other religions While such feelings are at times justified and help us cope with conflict related tragedies they are also often baseless misconstrued and counterproductive priming us to avoid religious others support discriminatory policies against them and even confront them in verbal or physical ways The purpose of this volume is to offer an academically informed yet practically oriented collection of essays that challenges and encourages Christians to engage their religious neighbors in a much more loving compassionate hopeful and courageous indeed orthopathic manner whether in the realm of politics in debate and conference venues on the mission field or in their own homes schools churches and neighborhoods As such a set of reflection and discussion questions is included to facilitate individual and or group study
