Stopping Places:

Moving Pictures/Stopping Places David B. Clarke, Valerie Crawford Pfannhauser, Marcus A. Doel, 2009-05-16 Mobility has long been a defining feature of modern societies yet remarkably little attention has been paid to the various stopping places _hotels motels and the like_ that this mobility presupposes If the paradoxical qualities of fixed places dedicated to facilitating movement have been overlooked by a variety of commentators film makers have shown remarkable prescience and consistency in engaging with these still points around which the world is made to turn Hotels and motels play a central role in a multitude of films ranging across an immensely wide variety of genres eras and national cinemas Whereas previous film theorists have focused on the movement implied by road movies and similar genres the outstanding contributions to this volume extend the recent engagement with space and place in film studies providing a series of fascinating explorations of the cultural significance of stopping places both on screen and off Ranging from the mythical elegance of the Grand Hotel through the uncanny spaces of the Bates motel to Korean love motels the wealth of insights from a variety of theoretical perspectives that this volume delivers is set to change our understanding of the role played by stopping places in an increasingly fluid world

Folklife and Superstition Sandra Rollings-Magnusson, 2024-10-15 A captivating history of folk traditions beliefs and culturally diverse customs in the early homesteading era on the Canadian Prairies The homesteading era on the Canadian Prairies 1867 1914 was a dynamic period of history when hundreds of thousands of men women and children migrating primarily from northwestern and eastern Europe descended nascent provinces of Alberta Saskatchewan and Manitoba Some were lured by the promise of prosperity and land ownership while others were fleeing war famine and persecution Homesteaders have been studied and written about extensively often within the context of settling the Canadian West and the displacement of Indigenous populations These narratives while crucial to our understanding of Canada s national identity and colonial past tend to obscure the personal stories beliefs and mindsets of those individuals who came to this part of the world and made a life there Drawing on a treasure trove of archival sources historian Sandra Rollings Magnusson presents a vivid and deeply personal collection of Prairie folklife revealing stories full of humour superstition fear and hope She gives insight into homesteaders daily lives including instances of water witching signs of good and bad luck neighbourly practical jokes and popular pastimes Through adaptation hardship homesickness and a sense of adventure they built communities with others from different backgrounds creating a unique culture that blended the old with the new
