

The background is a painting by J.M.W. Turner, 'Rain, Steam, and Great Central Railway'. It depicts a woman in a brown coat and white hat walking through a landscape with a railway in the background. The scene is characterized by soft, atmospheric lighting and a palette of muted greens, browns, and greys, typical of Turner's style.

Stories That Shape Us:

Searching for the Self Adrian T. Smith, 2018-01-22 Who am I If you are unsure of your personal identity you are not alone Our postmodern culture multiplies identity crisis Identity comes from story the better our story the healthier our identity and our behavior Searching for the Self helps you discover your own story and discern how cultural narratives shape your behavior Channeling the ancient wisdom of classic stories including Christian Scripture viewed as true story this book offers hope to anyone searching for a better story to live by Searching for the Self provides a groundbreaking synthesis of narrative psychology cultural analysis biblical studies and English Literature 101 all written in an engaging style and interwoven with revealing personal anecdotes

Shaped by the Story Michael Novelli, 2013-10-15 After more than a decade in youth ministry Michael Novelli felt like he'd tried everything to connect his students to the Bible Then a missionary introduced him to the art of Bible storying an imaginative way to engage in the scriptures through storytelling creative reflection and dialogue He soon discovered that Bible storying was not only an effective teaching approach but a powerful way to awaken people to new purpose and identity rooted in the biblical narrative In 2012 Michael partnered with Sparkhouse to create Echo the Story curriculum based on his approach to Bible storying Michael has seen people of all ages benefit from this imaginative way of encountering God through the Bible In this book you'll find methods for adapting Bible storying for varied contexts and ages testimonials from people using this approach tools to create your own Bible storying narratives and details about the proven learning theories guiding this approach

America Redux: Visual Stories from Our Dynamic History Ariel Aberg-Riger, 2023-05-02 A critical unflinching cultural history and fierce beacon of hope for a better future America Redux is a necessary and galvanizing read What are the stories we tell ourselves about America How do they shape our sense of history cloud our perceptions inspire us America Redux explores the themes that create our shared sense of American identity and interrogates the myths we've been telling ourselves for centuries With iconic American catchphrases as chapter titles these twenty one visual stories illuminate the astonishing unexpected sometimes darker sides of history that reverberate in our society to this very day from the role of celebrity in immigration policy to the influence of one small group of white women on education to the effects of progress on housing and the environment to the inspiring force of collective action and mutual aid across decades and among diverse groups Fully illustrated with collaged archival photographs maps documents graphic elements and handwritten text this book is a dazzling immersive experience that jumps around in time and will make you view history in a whole different light

Love Does Not Control Thomas Jay Oord, John Loppnow, Annie DeRolf, Christy Gunter, Lon Marshall, 2023-04-03 That love does not control seems obvious to many people And yet the temptation to control often with good motives is strong The long term results of yielding to this temptation damage everyone Contributors to Love Does Not Control explore uncontrolling love and a vision of God as uncontrolling They do so from their perspectives as therapists psychologists and counselors Writers ponder what uncontrolling love might mean for human healing Open and relational theology operates as the underlying framework for most contributors That theology fits nicely with the belief that love is uncontrolling Open and relational theology rethinks divine power in light of love and postulates what it might mean for creatures to imitate their Creator s uncontrolling love The essays in Love Does Not Control are diverse Readers may discover some differences of opinion as they move from essay to essay But contributors share in common the quest to explore what uncontrolling love means for issues in counseling psychology and or therapy These essays have a power that goes beyond mere theoretical reflection The ideas in these pages have the capacity to transform our living And even reading Love Does Not Control has the potential to become an exercise in uncontrolling love

Death and Philosophy J.E Malpas,Robert C. Solomon,2002-06-01 Death and Philosophy considers these questions with different perspectives varying from the existentialist deriving from Camus Heidegger or Sartre to the English speaking analytic tradition of Bernard Williams or Thomas Nagel to non wester approaches such as are exemplified in the Tibetan Book of the Dead and in Daoist thought to perspectives influenced by Lucretious Epicurus and Nietzsche Death and Philosophy will be of great interest to philosopers or those studying religion and theology but its clarity and scope ensures it will be accessible to anyone who has considered what it means to be mortal

Live, Listen, Tell Geoff New,2017-03-03 Live Listen Tell The Art of Preaching will guide readers through the process of sermon preparation and hearing God through the Scriptures By drawing on life and Scripture especially the road to Emmaus narrative in Luke 24 the author illustrates that preachers are living a story listening to a story and telling a story This book encourages you to pay particular attention through prayer to the story to which you are listening Geoff New shows how to prayerfully listen to the Scriptures in preaching preparation and how the fruit of this leads to a sermon and impacts the way we live listen and tell

Hidden Hooks Skye Alden,2025-09-03 Stories shape how we see the world They steer our choices and quietly build the rules we live by From ancient marks on clay to the flicker of screens stories have always been more than just things we listen to They hold power the power to light our hopes or hold us in place without us even knowing Hidden Hooks How Stories Snare Our Minds and Move Our World shows how stories have been used by kings priests poets and rebels Sometimes to control sometimes to free It moves through time and across lands from Gilgamesh s epic to the Dreamtime songs of the Aboriginals from the masked voices of Delphi to Sojourner Truth s calls for change It looks closely at stories like the Ramayana and Star Wars where the lines between good and evil twist and turn Through voices like Socrates Sappho and Rumi we are invited to question what we re told and to find the truths beneath the surface This book asks us to pay attention to notice the strings that pull and to find the courage to break free It opens the door to doubt not as a weakness but a tool to see clearly It encourages us to take the pen ourselves to tell our own stories that set us free

The Best Short Stories of ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story Martha Foley,Edward Joseph O'Brien,1919 Just Discipleship

Michael Jemison Rhodes,Michael J. Rhodes,2023-08-08 Biblical scholar Michael Rhodes argues that the Bible offers a vision of justice oriented discipleship that is critical for the formation of God's people Grounded in biblical theology virtue ethics and his own experiences he shows that justice is central to the Bible central to Jesus and central to authentic Christian discipleship

On Being the Church in the United States Barry Penn Hollar, 1994 Ecclesiology and political theory intersect in the rich debate among Christian social ethicists in the United States concerning the public responsibility of the church in a democratic capitalist culture This book begins by developing a framework for analyzing a theologian's understanding of the church world relationship It also provides a broad account of the liberal philosophical tradition's justification for democratic capitalism Chapters on Reinhold Niebuhr Rosemary Radford Ruether Stanley Hauerwas and Roman Catholic Social Teaching analyze and assess the intersection between their ecclesiologies and their appraisals of liberalism
