

Comprehensive Study Guide: The Cold War, Postwar America, and the 1950s

Causes and Origins of the Cold War

The Cold War began due to ideological conflict between capitalism (led by the United States) and communism (led by the Soviet Union). Tensions escalated during World War II, as the alliance between the two superpowers was primarily strategic rather than ideological. After the war, conflicting visions for postwar global order fueled mistrust: the U.S. aimed to promote democratic capitalism, while the USSR sought to expand communist influence. Key factors include:

- Actions during WWII: Soviet occupation of Eastern Europe and conflicting wartime priorities.
- Emergence of Eastern and Western Blocs: The division of Europe into Soviet-controlled Eastern Europe and Western democracies created a geopolitical split.
- Ideological differences: Capitalism versus communism, democracy versus authoritarianism, free markets versus state control.

United Nations and Early Cold War Conflicts

The United Nations (UN) was established to promote international peace and security, aiming to prevent another global conflict. However, its structure—particularly the veto power of permanent Security Council members—sometimes intensified Cold War tensions, as superpowers used vetoes to block each other's initiatives.
