Terror In Bridgling:

Terrorism: Bridging the Gap with Peace and Conflict Studies Ioannis Tellidis, Harmonie Toros, 2016-01-08 This book opens up the discussion of the interrelation between terrorism studies and peace and conflict studies The aim is to examine the instances and circumstances under which both fields can benefit from each other Even though it is often accepted that terrorism is a form of political violence it is also quite frequent that research on the topic is dismissed when it is approached with conflict analysis frames More importantly policy approaches continue to inhibit obstruct and reject frameworks that are concerned with the transformation and resolution of terrorist conflicts partly because they see the state as the ultimate referent object to be secured At the same time peace and conflict studies seem to be excessively focused on problem solving approaches which overemphasise the role of parity during negotiations and misdiagnose the distribution of power both within conflicts as well as within conflict management resolution and or transformation approaches This book was published as a special issue of Critical Studies on Terrorism

Maritime Terrorism and the Role of Judicial Institutions in the International Legal Order Md Saiful Karim, 2016-10-05 In Maritime Terrorism and the Role of Judicial Institutions in the International Legal Order Md Saiful Karim offers a critical analysis of the role of judicial institutions in combating maritime terrorism This book comprehensively examines the existing international legal framework for combating maritime terrorism and argues for an updated framework to tackle modern threats In particular Karim highlights the important task of national courts in the prosecution of suspected maritime terrorists as well as the settlement of disputes arising from maritime terrorism It fills in important gaps in the existing literature and proposes a path for the influence of international juridical institutions
