Violence, Extremism and Transformation Bertelsmann Stiftung (Gütersloh, Allemagne),2006 Based on the results of the Bertelsmann Transformation Index 2006 BTI this study challenges widespread assumptions and stereotypes about the nature of political violence The book reminds us that religious extremism while on the rise accounts for only a small fraction of armed conflict in the world Moreover Western countries preoccupation with transnational terrorism is misleading as most political violence has been and remains local in its origin and its area of activity The results call for a more differentiated assessment of the threats posed by militants and extremists If political violence and terrorism are still predominantly homegrown the multitude of local causes such as socioeconomic grievances or state weakness should receive more attention In any comprehensive effort to foster stability political institutions will have to play the pivotal role The European Union and Central and Eastern Europe Dimitris Papadimitriou,Dorina
