Urofsky, 2020-11-25 First Published in 1996 The key issue in all right to die matters is who decides Who will decide whether life support should be terminated Who will decide if a person is competent to make life and death decisions The law is quite clear that in cases of conscious competent adults the individual is free to make all decisions relating to his or her care and future This volume is a collection of writings and case studies around the topics of personal choice AIDS and informed consent due process and the right to die

Euthanasia and the Right to Die Jennifer M. Scherer, Rita J.
