These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences: University and College students, Educators, Professional practitioners, Research personnel and Policy analysts, managers and decision makers, and NGOs.

The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1909 Feminist Futures Kum-Kum Bhavnani, John Foran, Priya A. Kurian, Debashish Munshi, 2016-10-15

Straddling disciplines and continents, Feminist Futures interweaves scholarship and social activism to explore the evolving position of women in the South. Working at the intersection of cultural studies, critical development studies, and feminist theory, the book's contributors articulate a radical and innovative framework for understanding the linkages between women, culture, and development, applying it to issues ranging from sexuality and the gendered body to the environment, technology, and the cultural politics of representation. This revised and updated edition brings together leading academics as well as a new generation of activists and scholars to provide a fresh perspective on the ways in which women in the South are transforming our understanding of development.
