Understanding And Relating To Parents Professionally:

Understanding and Relating to Parents... Professionally Robert. L. DeBruyn,1999 Group Parent Education Deborah Campbell,Glen Palm,2004 For those working in group parent education I am sure it will a valuable resource and make its way onto the essential reading list of many courses Journal In Service Education This book is devoted to training parent educators and family counsellors and represents a unique and important contribution to the growing field of parent education and support programmes The authors build upon the rich traditions of group parent education while incorporating contemporary theory and practice Complementary Care to Promote Mental Health Nóra Kerekes,Anja C. Huizink,Anette Christina Ekström-Bergström,2023-11-28 The Relation of Superintendents and Principals to the Training and Professional Improvement of Their Teachers Charles Doak Lowry,1908 Epistemic Fluency and Professional Education Lina Markauskaite,Peter Goodyear,2016-09-21 This book by combining sociocultural material cognitive and embodied perspectives on human knowing offers a new and powerful conceptualisation of epistemic fluency a capacity that underpins knowledgeable professional action and innovation Using results from empirical studies of professional education programs the book sheds light on practical ways in which the development of epistemic fluency can be recognised and supported in higher education and in the transition to work The book provides a broader and deeper conception of epistemic fluency than previously available in the literature Epistemic fluency involves a set of capabilities that allow people to recognize and participate in different ways of knowing Such people are adept at combining different kinds of specialised and context dependent knowledge and at reconfiguring their work environment to see problems and solutions anew In practical terms the book addresses the following kinds of questions What does it take to be a productive member of a multidisciplinary team working on a complex problem What enables a person to integrate different types and fields of knowledge indeed different ways of knowing in order to make some well founded decisions and take actions in the world What personal knowledge resources are entailed in analysing a problem and describing an innovative solution such that the innovation can be shared in an organization or professional community How do people get better at these things and how can teachers in higher education help students develop these valued capacities The answers to these questions are central to a thorough understanding of what it means to become an effective knowledge worker and resourceful professional American Penman ,1929 The American Schoolmaster ,1920 New York State Education ,1930 Community Rehabilitation Services for People with Disabilities Orv C. Karan,Stephen Greenspan,2014-05-16 Community Rehabilitation Services for People with Disabilities delves into the changes happening in the disability services in the United States The book focuses on how these changes are affecting the way professionals and agencies relate to people with disabilities and their families The text aims to provide an introductory view of the community revolution in disability services The book is divided into three parts Part 1 breaks down the underlying principles of the community revolution in disability services Part 2 discusses the problems and issues in the implementation of these principles Part 3 accounts for the changes in practices and value orientations of professionals involved in providing services for people with disabilities The book will provide a rich source of insight for healthcare professionals social workers nurses caregivers teachers counselors psychiatrists therapists and community planners

TIP 52: Clinical Supervision and Professional Development of the Substance Abuse Counselor U.S. Department of Health and Human Services,2019-11-23 This Treatment Improvement Protocol TIP is a companion to TIP 51 Substance Abuse Treatment Addressing the Specific Needs of Women These two volumes look at how gender specific treatment strategies can improve outcomes for men and women respectively The physical psychological social and spiritual effects of substance use and abuse on men can be quite different from the effects on women and those differences have implications for treatment in behavioral health settings Men are also affected by social and cultural forces in different ways than women and physical differences between the genders influence substance use and recovery as well This TIP Addressing the Specific Behavioral Health Needs of Men addresses these distinctions It provides practical information based on available evidence and clinical experience that can help counselors more effectively treatment with substance use disorders
