Early Childhood Education in the 21st Century Hani Yulindrasari,Vina Adriany,Yeni Rahmawati,Fonny Hutagalung,Sarita Gálvez,Ade Gafar Abdullah,2019-09-24 Providing a selection of papers presented at ICECE 2018 a biennial conference organised by the Early Childhood Education Program Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia The conference s general theme was Finding Alternative Approaches Theories Frameworks and Practices of Early Childhood Education in the 21th Century Distinct from other periods of time the 21st century is characterised by so much knowledge easy to access but hard to grasp borderless and hyper connected society mediated by the internet high competitiveness not only within a country but across countries high mobility and widening economic discrepancy as neoliberalism has strengthened its influence on every sector of human life The children of today will face many things that have not yet been invented or discovered sometimes beyond expectations Scholars and teachers of early childhood education need to be aware of these astonishing changes The way children and childhood are seen cannot stay the same and so does the way children of this century are educated The conference opened a discussion about finding alternative approaches theories and best practices of early childhood education for a rapidly changing and globalised society

Beyond Racial Gridlock George Yancey,2009-08-20 Sociologist George Yancey critiques four models of race colorblindness Anglo conformity multiculturalism and white responsibility and introduces a new model mutual responsibility He offers hope that people of all races can walk together on a shared path toward racial reconciliation not as adversaries but as collaborators and partners

Educational Psychology Robert E. Slavin,2014 From renowned educational psychologist Robert Slavin the Tenth Edition of this popular text translates theory into practices that teachers can use in their classrooms with deeper inquiry into the concept of intentionality and a thorough integration of standards This new edition highlights the most current issues and emerging trends in the field of educational psychology while continuing to have in depth practical coverage with a focus on the intentional teacher An intentional teacher according to Slavin is one who constantly reflects on his or her practice and makes instructional decisions based on a clear conception of how these practices affect students To help readers become intentional teachers the author offers a set of questions to guide them and models best practices through classroom examples Multiculturalism Chinaka S. DomNwachukwu,HeeKap Lee,2014-01-07 Multiculturalism A Shalom Motif for the Christian Community is an attempt to engage the Christian community on the ongoing discussion of cultural diversity and its implications for the church and the entire Christian community of the twenty first century Written for Christian schools and churches this book confronts the fact that for the Christian church in North America to remain vibrant and relevant in the twenty first century it must engage with the idea of multiculturalism and all other forms of diversity that now characterize the contemporary society While the nature of this engagement will vary from case to case cultural diversity must become a growing face of the church in America This book uses a combination of philosophy educational theories and biblical theology to provide Christian educators and churches with a critical understanding of multiculturalism as well as practical steps for engaging this issue within the Christian community
