Using Force To Prevent Ethnic Violence:

Using Force to Prevent Ethnic Violence David Carment, Frank P. Harvey, 2001 More than ever before ethnic struggle finds expression in the growing incidence and scale of displaced persons and refugee flows as well as in exacerbated levels of ethnic minority abuse and involuntary assimilation Demographic and political sources of instability in multi ethnic societies assure the continuing significance of ethnic strife and the potential for intrastate ethnic violence far into the next millennium While not all disagreements between ethnic groups can be expected to escalate into violence more than a few have produced intractable and destructive conflicts and one or more of these conflicts could ultimately reach levels that overwhelm international resources and capabilities Carment and Harvey examine how regional and international security organizations can prevent destructive ethnic conflict and manage cases in which violence already is at hand First they develop a conceptual framework for advancing basic research on the prevention and management of intrastate ethnic violence They evaluate theoretical knowledge about the nature of ethnic conflict using case material and quantitative assessments and they apply these assumptions against recent instances of conflict management through an in depth study of NATO s involvement in Kosovo and Bosnia This book serves as an important research tool for students scholars and policy makers involved with ethnic conflict and international relations

Using Force to Protect Civilians Stian Kjeksrud, 2023 This book offers the first comprehensive analysis of United Nations military protection operations across time and UN missions It draws on a novel dataset that covers 200 operations from ten UN peacekeeping missions in Africa from 1999 to 2017 and evaluates the successes and failures of UN military troops in protecting civilians from violence

Conflict Prevention from Rhetoric to Reality David Carment, Albrecht Schnabel, 2004-01-01 Offers a critical evaluation of existing and emerging approaches to applied conflict prevention that involve nontraditional actors ranging from the corporate sector and NGOs to regional and multilateral economic and political organizations The volume suggests best practices for individuals within these organizations to use the array of political economic social and developmental instruments available to them reference for students and scholars working in the field of peace and conflict resolution studies and for those seeking to explore alternatives to violence and share visions and strategies for social justice and social change Realism and Institutionalism in International Studies Michael Brecher, Frank P. Harvey, 2002-08-20 Realism and Institutionalism in International Studies represents a unique collection of original essays by foremost scholars in the field of International Studies Six essays advocate critique or revise Realism the theoretical paradigm that explains international politics by emphasizing security competition and war among states The remaining four essays address Institutionalism the paradigm that offers explanations for the formation maintenance variation and significance of international institutions The authors reflect on the strengths and weaknesses of these approaches and suggest research agendas for the future Together this volume provides an accessible and wide ranging survey of the issues concerning two major paradigms in International Studies This volume will be of interest to scholars and students alike and will undoubtedly determine the shape of future research Regional Development Dialogue, 2005 An international journal focusing on third world development problems

Preventing Genocide Scott R. Feil, Carnegie Commission on Preventing Deadly Conflict, 1998 THE EXPERIENCE IN Rwanda was a watershed for the international community the United Nations the contributors to the United Nations Assistance Mission for Rwanda and least of all myself However no one noticed that it was a watershed at the time It was seen as too difficult and not of sufficient interest and value to prevent the outbreak of violence and once violence had broken out it still was not of sufficient interest to warrant the expense of resources and risk of more casualties to stop the violence from spreading While others remained focused on the world's other crises the people of Rwanda were forgotten It was not really until the international community noticed tens of thousands of refugees in eastern Zaire with thousands dying daily of cholera that they felt truly compelled to act This three month delay cost the lives of hundreds of thousands of innocent Rwandans and countless scars and disfigurements for those who lived through the horrors Like the crisis at the time the need for a response mechanism and the consequences of not looking for solutions are guaranteeing the recurrence of other humanitarian catastrophes now and into the future Preventing the Use of Force by States Against Peoples Under Their Rule, 1992 The Project of a League of Nations, 1917 The International Politics of Quebec Secession David Carment, Frank P. Harvey, John F. Stack, 2001-02-28 Examines the future of domestic and foreign relations between Canada Quebec and their neighbors in the event of a yes vote The Greenwood Encyclopedia of International Relations: M-R Cathal J. Nolan, 2002 Annotation The rise of the Great Powers and the course of world civilizations their formative wars and diplomatic political and economic relations are the primary focus But tremendous steps are made to cover all of the smaller and less powerful regions their local history and how progressive inclusion into the modern state system affected them both for good and for ill This cross referenced work addresses the educated lay reader as well as specialists seeking clear concise sketches of the topics that have shaped political and historical developments in our world BOOK JACKET Title Summary field
