Between Landscape Architecture and Land Art Udo Weilacher, 1999 Contemporary landscape architecture is progressing towards an appropriate and independent language of its own Drawing on the potentials of art and architecture the ever changing relationship between man and nature is given new expression Ecological concerns and aesthetic aspirations interact in a fruitful dialogue Particularly Land Art and related art movements become sources of inspiration and innovation The groundbreaking works of the landscape artists and architects presented in this book reveal the diverse current trends in international landscape design This book offers many stimuli to design Its contents are not just for landscape architects wrote The architects journal With chapters on Dani Karavan Ian Hamilton Finlay Bernard Lassus Peter Latz Dieter Kienast Herman Prigann Peter Walker Adriaan Geuze and others

Herausgegeben Von Rosemarie E. Pahlke & Pia Simig Ian Hamilton Finlay, Pia Maria Simig, Museum am Ostwall, Galerie Stadtpark (Krems an der Donau, Austria), 1997 Ian Hamilton Finlay born 1925 in the Bahamas is one of the most important artists of his time in Great Britain His international reputation is all the more remarkable in view of the fact that he has never striven to be modern or contemporary but has often consciously distanced himself from the avant garde At the center of Finlay s art are language and writing and he is known as much for being a poet and printmaker as he is for being a sculptor and artist With this book all the graphic works of Finlay from 1963 to the present are made available for the first time These prints many of which Finlay did in limited editions for his own small press are exquisitely rendered and are put into the context of Finlay s complete work by an informative text
