World Catechism Or Inculturation Concilium

Johann Baptist Metz, Jürgen Moltmann

World Catechism Or Inculturation Concilium:

World Catechism Or Inculturation? Johann Baptist Metz, Edward Schillebeeckx, 1989 Concilium has long been a household name for cutting edge critical and constructive theological thinking Past contributors include leading Catholic scholars such as Hans K ng Gregory Baum and Edward Schillebeeckx and the editors of the review belong to the international who s who in the world of contemporary theology Published five times a year each issue reflects a deep knowledge and scholarship presented in a highly readable style and each issue offers a wide variety of viewpoints from leading thinkers from all over the world

Catholic Identity Or Identities? Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2013 How can Catholic leaders effectively train and form members of our institutions in the Gospel values that are the ultimate foundation of Catholic identities Internationally recognized author educator and facilitator Gerald A Arbuckle argues that it is time to acknowledge that the programs and processes used in the past are inadequate to our postmodern age The systems previously used to educate the staffs of our hospitals universities schools and other institutions rarely succeed today Although didactic teaching and discursive learning have their place they cannot be the primary method for forming identities Catholic Identity or Identities will assist a wide range of people bishops theologians pastoral workers institutional leaders and staffs and more in their various ministries Arbuckle draws on several disciplines including Scripture theology and history but in particular cultural anthropology to explain the importance of refounding adult formation for Catholic ministries and the practical ways to achieve it

Sino-Christian Studies in China YANG Huilin, Daniel H. N. YEUNG, 2009-05-27 In the 1980s there was a wave of introducing western thoughts in the academia of Mainland China The significance of this movement is regarded by some Chinese scholars as another Enlightenment since the May 4th movement 1919 In this movement there was a small group of Chinese scholars who thought that subtle interaction between Christian thought and western culture and academic should be noticed The aim of this book is at reporting this academic movement which is still active and dynamic today This book includes 22 essays written by authors from Mainland China and overseas who may be intra or extra ecclesia But all of them are prominent in their respective geographical and academic area This is the first book introducing to the English speaking world the origin and development of Sino Chirstian Studies and Sino Christian Theology systematically

Catechesis for the New Evangelization Brian Pedraza, 2020-06-12 Popes Francis Benedict XVI and John Paul II have called the present a time of New Evangelization for the Church and have stressed the importance of catechesis for this mission John Paul II claimed that this renewal of the Church s mission is grounded in the teachings of the Second Vatican Council Nevertheless approaches to catechesis in the conciliar and postconciliar era have varied greatly as evidenced by the shifts in catechetical practice effected by the modern catechetical movement Just as the dominant forms of theology changed from neo scholastic to anthropological approaches so too did catechesis move from catechism based approaches to more anthropological models based upon human experience In light of this context Catechesis for the New Evangelization examines the theological foundations of catechesis in the Church's understanding of divine revelation and its reception by the human person especially as found in the conciliar constitutions Dei Verbum and Gaudium et Spes. After drawing norms on divine revelation from these documents it traces the history of the modern catechetical movement in order to compare this history with the conciliar norms highlighting the renewal's strengths and weaknesses. These steps prepare the way for the main part of the book an examination of the anthropology of Karol Wojtya a Pope John Paul II. Ultimately his anthropology provides an understanding of the person that can unite divine revelation and human experience in a way that takes what is best from the modern catechetical movement while developing the ministry in a way that can be fruitful for the New Evangelization. Pedraza's book is not only an incisive look at modern catechetical history and theory. It also touches upon some of the most important theological topics of the past century including the neo scholastic crisis the proper interpretation of the Council the relationship of nature and grace and the modern understanding of the imago dei with the research and competency appropriate for scholarly interest and the accessibility needed for educated practitioners in catechesis.

Church and Society Avery Cardinal Dulles, S.J., 2009-08-25 One of the leading theologians of our time Avery Cardinal Dulles S.J. has written and lectured on a wide range of topics across his distinguished career and for a wide range of audiences. Integrating faith and scholarship he has created a rich body of work that in the words of one observer is both faithful to Catholic tradition and fresh in its engagement with the contemporary world. Here brought together for the first time in one volume are the talks Cardinal Dulles has given twice each year since the Laurence J McGinley Lectures were initiated in 1988 conceived broadly as a forum on Church and society. The result is a diverse collection that reflects the breadth of his thinking and engages with many of the most important and difficult religious issues of our day. Organized chronologically the lectures are often responses to timely issues such as the relationship between religion and politics a topic he treated in the last weeks of the presidential campaign of 1992. Other lectures take up questions surrounding human rights faith and evolution forgiveness the death penalty the doctrine of religious freedom the population of hell and a whole array of theological subjects many of which intersect with culture and politics. The life of the Church is a major and welcome focus of the lectures whether they be a reflection on Cardinal Newman or an exploration of the difficulties of interfaith dialogue. Dulles responds frequently to initiatives of the Holy See discussing gender and priesthood in the context of church teaching and Pope Benedict's interpretation of Vatican II. Writing with clarity and conviction Cardinal Dulles seeks to render the wisdom of past ages applicable to the world in which we live. For those seeking to share in this wisdom this book will be a consistently rewarding guide to what it means to be Catholic indeed to be a person of any faith in a world of rapid relentless change.

The Universal Catechism Reader Mary C. Boys,1990 The Culture of Bible Belt Catholics Jon W. Anderson,William B. Friend,1995 Do Catholics in the South have a cultural profile or identity distinct from non Catholics in the South What are the cues and clues in Catholic identity and culture in the region What should evangelization to Southern Catholics take into account It is around these questions that the authors build their fascinating and informative new book

Faith and the Future Johann Baptist Metz,Jürgen Moltmann,1995 In complementary ways these authors have emphasized the eschatological character of Christianity in a way that does justice both to the transcendent and this worldly implications of the gospel This book brings their work into a unique dialogue drawing on their respective contributions to the international journal Concilium of which they are both editors

Seeing the Lord Marianne Sawicki,1994 Bread and Breath T. K. John,1991 Religion and the Environment: Connections: science, ethics, eco-feminism, consumerism, sustainability and spirituality Roger S. Gottlieb,2010

In the last two decades a new form of religiously motivated social action and a virtually new field of academic study each based in recognition of the connections between religion and humanity's treatment of the environment have developed Interactions between religion and environmental concern have been manifest in the explosive growth of ecotheological writings institutional commitment by organized religions and environmental activism explicitly oriented to religious ideals Clergy throughout the world in virtually every denomination have received word from leaders of their religion that the environment no less than sexuality poverty or war and peace is now a basic and compelling religious matter Out of this confrontation have been born vital new theologies based in the recovery of marginalized elements of tradition profound criticisms of the past and ecologically oriented visions of God the Sacred the Earth and human beings Theologians from every religious tradition along with dozens of non denominational spiritual writers have confronted world religions past attitudes towards nature In the realm of institutional commitment public statements and actions by organized religions have grown dramatically In the context of political action throughout the U S and the world religiously oriented groups take part in environmentally oriented political action from lobbying and consciousness raising to activist demonstrations and civil disobedience This collection serves as a comprehensive introduction overview and in depth account of these exciting new developments The four volumes cover virtually every aspect of the field from theological change and institutional commitment to innovation in liturgy from new ecumenical connections among different religions and between religion science and environmental movements from religious participation in environmental politics to an account of the global social and political contexts in which religious environmentalism has unfolded The Catholic Parish Desmond Ryan,1996
