World Enough:

What is World Literature? David Damrosch, 2003-03-30 INTRODUCTION Goethe coins a phrase PART ONE CIRCULATION Gilgamesh's quest The pope's blowgun From the old world to the whole world PART TWO TRANSLATION Love in the necropolis The afterlife of Mechthild von Magdeburg Kafka comes home PART THREE PRODUCTION English in the world Rigoberta Menchú in print The poisoned book CONCLUSION World enough and time Making History Jonathon S. Cullick, 2000-04-01 From his first published book to his last works Robert Penn Warren wrote novels poetry biographies and essays based on the lives of American historical figures Even some of his critical texts take a biographical approach to their subjects In Making History the first comprehensive survey of Warren's biographical narratives Jonathan S. Cullick tracks a clear development toward autobiography in Warren's career By applying narrative theory to that provocative trend he then makes an intriguing discovery Warren's discourse techniques dramatize his philosophy of history and ethics Cullick unearths what might be called the narrative syntax of Warren's historical vision in which genre becomes vital in the attempt to reconcile American past and present Making History considers all of Warren's major biographical narratives and their involvement from detached reporting to doubtful self-examination It offers a new reading of Warren's famed novel All the King's Men and close examination of several neglected texts including Warren's first book John Brown: The Making of a Martyr his essay The World of Daniel Boone and two of his final works Jefferson Davis Gets His Citizenship Back and Portrait of a Father

The Gift of Purpose J. Alexander Rutherford, 2020-12-18 Many writers and commentators are convinced that Western culture and society are unravelling Who can blame them As I write this violent protests rage across the USA in response to senseless murders The political sphere has never seemed so virulent and a deadly epidemic has affected all our lives Many are agreed that there are serious problems working themselves out in Western society yet among Christians there is little agreement over the approach we should take to the West and its problems This issue how Christians should approach engagement with culture is not a new one nor is it a uniquely Western issue Christians in every age and in every culture are confronted with this question In response to many today who see it as the Christian responsibility to save the West to preserve its unique cultural heritage and achievements this author argues that our lives in this world need to be governed by three theological themes ecclesiology soteriology and eschatology That is we must prioritize the local church engage with society with the understanding that earthly kingdoms are manifestations of Satan's kingdom and live in light of Christ's imminent return
