World History to 1800 Jackson J. Spielvogel, Bonnie Zucker Goldsmith, West Publishing Company, 1998-01-01 The World's History: Central and northern Europe Hans Ferdinand Helmolt, 1907 An English adaptation of Helmolt's Weltgeschichte with a rejection of sections which did not seem quite adequate from the point of view of its English readers. Publisher's note: A Companion to Global Historical Thought Prasenjit Duara, Viren Murthy, Andrew Sartori, 2014-01-21 A COMPANION TO GLOBAL HISTORICAL THOUGHT A Companion to Global Historical Thought provides an overview of the development of historical thinking from the earliest times to the present, directly addressing issues of historiography in a globalized context. Questions concerning the global dissemination of historical writing and the relationship between historiography and other ways of representing the past have become important not only in the academic study of history but also in public arenas in many countries. With contributions from leading international scholars, the book considers the problem of the global in the multiplicity of traditions of narrating the past in the global dissemination of modern historical writing and of the global as a concept animating historical imaginations. It explores the different intellectual approaches that have shaped the discipline of history and the challenges posed by modernity and globalization while illustrating the shifts in thinking about time and the emergence of historical thought. Complementing A Companion to Western Historical Thought, this book places non-Western perspectives on historiography at the center of discussion, helping scholars and students alike make sense of the discipline at the start of the twenty-first century. The World's History: Western Europe Hans Ferdinand Helmolt, 1907 The World's History: Western Europe.
