World Languages Cd Rom:

Learning to Teach Modern Foreign Languages in the Secondary School Norbert Pachler, Kit Field, 1997 Designed as a text to support student teachers in training this book focuses on the key skills of teaching modern foreign languages The practical focus of the book is underpinned by a theoretical perspective including ample opportunities for reflection Account is taken of national statutory frameworks The book aims to assist student teachers in developing a personal approach to modern foreign languages teaching and to choose the most effective and appropriate methods to help pupils gain relevant knowledge skills and understanding For mentors and tutors working with student teachers this book provides an overview of the areas covered by student teachers during their course of initial teacher education Chapters cover for instance the teaching of grammar and cultural awareness assessment the use of the target language for instruction and interaction the use of new technologies in the classroom Examples are given in French German and Spanish but most are transferable to other languages

Teaching Modern Foreign Languages at Advanced Level Norbert Pachler, 2002-11-01 Designed to complement Learning to Teach Modern Foreign Languages in the Secondary School this book focuses specifically on the skills and processes of teaching MFL at A and A S level in schools and colleges The book is divided into three sections the changing nature of A and A S level courses bridging the gap between GCSE and A level and planning teaching and assessment With chapters on learner independence teaching and learning grammar planning topics and programmes of work working with literature and vocational alternatives the book will be an essential text for all secondary MFL students and teachers

Loanwords in the World's Languages Martin Haspelmath, Uri Tadmor, 2009 This landmark publication in comparative linguistics is the first comprehensive work to address the general issue of what kinds of words tend to be borrowed from other languages The authors have assembled a unique database of over 70 000 words from 40 languages from around the world 18 000 of which are loanwords This database allows the authors to make empirically founded generalizations about general tendencies of word exchange among languages Book Jacket
